Creighton University officially became a member of the BIG EAST Conference at 12:01 a.m. on July 1, 2013. The 2025-26 season is Creighton's 13th in the league.

Creighton, along with fellow newcomers Butler and Xavier, joined a BIG EAST that retained DePaul, Georgetown, Marquette, Seton Hall, Providence, Villanova and St. John's. The partnership was announced on March 20, 2013, in New York. The University of Connecticut rejoined the league on July 1, 2020.

The 2025-26 academic year is the 47th in the history of the BIG EAST, a league synonymous with basketball that has evolved into a well-rounded league that competes nationally at the highest level in sports across the board.

The BIG EAST has produced 17 national champions over the past 12 academic years. Nine BIG EAST teams have captured national titles, including last season in women's basketball.

Since opening its doors in 1979, the league has won, BIG EAST teams have won 45 national championships in eight different sports with 146 student-athletes winning individual national titles.

Ruth Scott Training Center

Creighton dedicated the Ruth Scott Training Center on February 4, 2019.

Creighton dedicated the Ruth Scott Training Center on February 4, 2019, in a ceremony that included Bill and Ruth Scott, Creighton President Fr. Daniel S. Hendrickson, S.J., former McCormick Endowed Athletic Director Bruce Rasmussen and head coaches Jim Flanery and Kirsten Bernthal Booth.

The $5 million dollar training facility is the latest addition to the east campus athletic corridor. Fewer student-athletes miss practice because of gym and classroom schedules, and all Bluejay student-athletes benefit. Designed primarily for volleyball and women's basketball, this facility acknowledges the hardworking, talented coaches and student-athletes Creighton hopes to retain.

Aligning with Creighton Athletics' mission of recruiting, retaining, developing and graduating outstanding student-athletes, this facility is a vital developmental resource for both programs. It provides an alternative 16,109 square-foot space to ensure both programs have ample court time to develop individually and as a team. As the volleyball program's success continues to expand its season by more than a month, having a designated practice gym will alleviate scheduling challenges, as well as provide ideal practice times for both programs as their competition seasons overlap.

The Ruth Scott Training Center provides space for two full-sized basketball and volleyball courts, six basketball hoops, two automated volleyball nets that lower from the ceiling, state-of-the-art audio and visual equipment to film and review practices, a hydration station and additional storage space.

In recent years, both the Creighton women's basketball and volleyball programs have achieved incredible success on the national stage. In 2024, the volleyball program captured its 11th consecutive BIG EAST Conference regular-season title. The Bluejays finished the season playing in their 13th consecutive NCAA Tournament.

In 2021-22, women's basketball captured the attention of the basketball world with an upset victory at No. 8 Iowa to advance to the first NCAA Sweet 16 in program history. The Bluejays' run continued in Greensboro, North Carolina as Creighton took down No. 10 Iowa State to set up a battle with No. 1 South Carolina in the Elite Eight. Although the Bluejays fell to the Gamecocks, the NCAA run was historic and set a new bar for Creighton women's basketball.

In addition, the space provides more opportunity for the Creighton community to host additional special events at D.J. Sokol Arena during normal practice times. This facility also sends a strong national message showing Creighton Athletics' dedication to women's athletics, student-athletes and coaches. Construction on the training center was completed in January 2019, with the facility dedicated on February 4, 2019.

The facility was made possible thanks to many generous donors, especially lead donors Ruth and Bill Scott, whose generosity has transformed the east campus athletics corridor.

A look at the ceremonial opening of the Ruth Scott Training Center.

Jensen Family Lounge

Officially opened in the spring of 2015, the Jensen Family Lounge was made possible by generous gifts from Ruth and Bill Scott (pictured below with the 2014-15 women's basketball team) and several other donors. The lounge was designed by Dixon Jensen.

The lounge features a theater-style viewing area for game film, television and movies. It also offers a study area, kitchenette and gaming area for the Creighton women's basketball and volleyball teams.

Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena

An important milestone was reached on October 16, 2007, when Creighton broke ground on the Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena, thanks to the generous donations of Wayne and Eileen Ryan and family as well as Dave and Peggy Sokol. Funded by private dollars and dedicated on August 28, 2009, the facility hosted its first regular-season basketball game on November 13, 2009, a Bluejay victory over Arkansas State. The Ryan Athletic Center is the home to Creighton women's basketball and volleyball.

A 75,000 square-foot facility, the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena seats 2,500 fans for sporting events. Locker rooms for women's basketball, volleyball, men's & women's soccer. In addition coaches offices for women's basketball and volleyball are within the Ryan Athletic Center.

The facility also houses the Bluejay ticket office, an athletic training room, meeting rooms, hospitality functions and a media workroom. In addition, the arena is used for other campus and community events, including coaching camps & clinics, concerts, speakers and graduations.

The Ryans were long-time supporters of Creighton University. Wayne Ryan, BS'49, MS'51, chairman and CEO of Streck Laboratories, Inc., began his career teaching at Creighton before pursuing his passion for research that led to the founding of his company. The Ryans' daughter, Connie, serves on Creighton University's Board of Trustees.

David and Peggy Sokol honored their son, David L. Sokol, Jr. "D.J.", who passed in 1999 following a battle with Hodgkin's disease, by naming the gymnasium the D.J. Sokol Arena. David Sokol served as chairman and CEO of MidAmerican Energy Holdings Company and recently served on Creighton University's Board of Trustees.

"Visionary donors like the Ryans and Sokols make our dreams of an even stronger athletics program, championed by intensely loyal fans, more of a reality," said former Creighton Athletics Director Bruce Rasmussen. "This Bluejay spirit is a unifying characteristic that enhances the institution's visibility and reputation."

The opening of the Ryan Athletic Center and D.J. Sokol Arena in 2009 marked the first time that a Creighton women's basketball team played a regular-season game on campus since the 1991-92 season.

Jim Flanery begins his 24th year as Creighton's head coach in 2025-26 after taking the Bluejays to their fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament last season. Flanery is Creighton's all-time victory leader, entering the season with a record of 453-275 (.622).

Flanery has guided Creighton to eight of the 11 NCAA Tournament appearances in women's basketball history, reaching the Big Dance in 2012, 2013, 2017, 2018, 2022, 2023, 2024 and again in 2025.

The 2021-22 campaign was historic for the Bluejays as Creighton reached the Elite Eight with victories over Colorado, at No. 8 Iowa and over No. 10 Iowa State. Creighton also reached the NCAA Second Round in 2013, 2017, 2018 and 2024, as well as claiming the program's first BIG EAST regular-season title in 2017.

Under Flanery, the Bluejays have reached 20 wins or more 13 times and have been to the postseason 19 times, including a stretch of 11 consecutive years from 2008-2018. Flanery also led Creighton to a pair of appearances in the WNIT Final Four (2003 & 2004), capturing the 2004 WNIT Championship. Flanery has four conference titles, capturing the BIG EAST regular-season crown in 2017, Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championships in 2003 and 2013, and the 2012 MVC Tournament Championship.

Prior to Flanery's tenure, Creighton teams made 200 three-pointers in a single season twice. Including 2024-25, the Bluejays have eclipsed 200 treys in a season during 19 of his 23 campaigns at the helm, including a single-season record with 334 trifectas in 2021-22.

Flanery's scheduling philosophy has always been to improve, "you must face tough opposition." During Flanery's 23 seasons, Creighton has played 65 ranked opponents, including six during the 2024-25 season. The dividends of his approach was never more apparent than during the Bluejays' NCAA Tournament run in 2021-22. Creighton went into Carver-Hawkeye Arena as the No. 10 seed, upsetting Colorado and taking down No. 8 Iowa in front of over 14,000 fans in black and gold.

Flanery's motion offense is built on forcing defenses to defend for long possessions. One of the driving forces in Creighton's success in 2021-22 was the ability to share the basketball. The Bluejays led the nation in assists (668), assists per game (20.2) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.59). The Bluejays also shot the ball tremendously well, closing the season fifth in three-pointers made (334) and third in three-pointers per game (10.1)

Flanery's engaging personality and exciting coaching style have made the Bluejays increasingly visible in the community. The Bluejays moved into D.J. Sokol Arena inside the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center prior to the 2009-10 season and have posted an impressive 156-51 record in the venue.

Under Flanery, the Bluejays have compiled a 229-79 record at home. Fans have responded to the success, setting single-game and average attendance records. The top two home crowds and eight of the top-10 crowds in school history have come during Flanery's reign. Fans set a home attendance record last season with 2,417 fans per game, including a single-game mark of 11,141 against UConn in CHI Health Center Omaha on Jan. 25, 2025.

Garnering athletic and academic notoriety is the standard set during the Flanery era. The Bluejays have been in the WBCA Academic Top-25 nine times, including a No. 6 ranking in 2024-25, a No. 4 ranking in 2010-11, a No. 5 ranking in the 2009-10, and a No. 9 in 2017-18. Three players have earned CSC Academic All-America honors, highlighted by Morgan Maly claiming the recognition in 2023-24 and 2024-25.

A total of 18 players earned All-MVC First Team Scholar-Athletes under Flanery. The Bluejays' success on the court was on display during the 2023-24 season as Creighton appeared in the final 16 and 18-of-20 Associated Press polls.

During Flanery's tenure, Bluejay players have continued to earn individual accolades including All-American honors by Marissa Janning (2014), Jaylyn Agnew (2020) and Lauren Jensen (2025), a Freshman All-American nod (Janning, 2013), two Preseason All-American honors (Angie Janis, 2005 & Christy Neneman in 2003), three conference Player of the Year awards by Neneman (2003) Janning (2014) and Agnew (2020), three conference Freshman of the Year honors from Agnew (2017), Janning (2013) & Carli Tritz (2011), a conference Newcomer of the Year from Megan Neuvirth (2007), three Defensive Player of the Year honors (Laura Spanheimer (2003 & 2004) as well as Neuvirth (2009)), 26 First Team All-Conference (MVC & BIG EAST) selections and in 2020 Agnew became the first Bluejay selected in the WNBA Draft.

In addition, Spanheimer became the first player in MVC history to be named to the all-defensive team four times. Spanheimer also earned WNIT All-Tournament recognition twice. Neneman was tabbed the 2004 WNIT Most Valuable Player.

Flanery and the team celebrating after reaching the Elite Eight in 2022.

Flanery became the Bluejays head coach on July 19, 2002. He is the sixth head coach in women's hoops history at Creighton, and just the third since 1980. He succeeded mentor, Connie Yori, who he had been on staff with since his graduate assistant days at Creighton in the late 1980s.

Following graduation, Flanery joined former McCormick Endowed Director of Athletics Bruce Rasmussen's Bluejay coaching staff as a graduate assistant for the 1987-88 season. He remained on the Creighton women's basketball staff through the 1989-90 season, before joining Yori at Loras College (Iowa) for two seasons prior to the 1990-91 season.

When Yori was tabbed as the head coach at Creighton prior to the 1992-93 season, Flanery once again joined forces to continue the winning tradition set by Rasmussen. As Yori's top assistant, Flanery and the Bluejays notched a 170-115 record in a 10-year span, making two appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

A 1987 Creighton graduate with a BA in philosophy, Flanery was a member of the Bluejay men's basketball team from 1985-87 and was also a member of the Creighton men's golf team. Flanery and his wife Emily have two children, Jackson and Brynn. Flanery is originally from Guthrie Center, Iowa.

Year-By-Year Recap

2024-25: 26-7 Overall, 16-2 BIG EAST (2nd) - NCAA First Round
The Bluejays continued a record streak with their fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance. Highlighting the season was an 11-0 mark at D.J. Sokol Arena, including an 80-74 win over No. 21 Nebraska and an 18-3 mark against BIG EAST foes. All seven of Creighton's losses came against NCAA Tournament teams, including three to eventual national champion UConn. Individually, Lauren Jensen earned All-American honors from both the WBCA and AP, while Morgan Maly collected her second consecutive CSC Academic All-America selection. Both Jensen and Maly nabbed All-BIG EAST First Team honors, while Molly Mogensen was named All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention.

2023-24: 26-6 Overall, 15-3 BIG EAST (2nd) - NCAA Second Round
Creighton opened the year with a 7-1 record heading into conference play. During the non-conference, the Bluejays captured a key win at Nebraska, while also posting victories over Georgia Tech and Michigan State in the Cancun Challenge. The Bluejays fought through conference play to finish second in the BIG EAST and reached the NCAA Tournament for the seventh time under Jim Flanery and the third consecutive season. After a win over No. 20 UNLV in the first round, Creighton lost a hard fought battle to No. 6 UCLA to finish the year. The Bluejays were ranked in the polls for 18 of 20 weeks, finishing season ranked 16 consecutive weeks. Lauren Jensen, Morgan Maly and Emma Ronsiek were All-BIG EAST First Team selections.

2022-23: 22-9 Overall, 12-6 BIG EAST (3rd) - NCAA First Round
Ranked No. 21 in the preseason AP poll, Creighton opened the year with seven straight wins. During the early surge the Bluejays took down No. 23 South Dakota State, No. 22 Nebraska and No. 25 Villanova. The Bluejays went on reach the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time under Jim Flanery and the second consecutive season. The Bluejays, however, fell to play-in winner Mississippi State 81-66. A trio of Bluejays earned individual accolades as Lauren Jensen and Morgan Maly were All-BIG EAST First Team selections, while Emma Ronsiek earned All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention.

2021-22: 23-10 Overall, 15-5 BIG EAST (3rd) - NCAA Elite Eight
The Bluejays delivered a historic run in the NCAA Tournament to cap the 2021-22 season. Entering the Big Dance as a No. 10 seed, Creighton defeated Colorado 84-74. The Bluejays went on to upset No. 8 Iowa in front of a capacity crowd better than 14,000 at Carver-Hawkeye Arena. The win over the Hawkeyes was featured on national television, lifting Creighton's program to new heights. Creighton's run continued with a neutral site win over No. 10 Iowa State before giving way to the eventual national champion South Carolina. Individually Emma Ronsiek earned All-BIG EAST First Team, while Lauren Jensen and Morgan Maly collected BIG EAST Most Improved Player and Sixth Woman of the Year honors. Creighton closed the season as the NCAA leader in assists (668), assists per game (20.2) and assist-to-turnover ratio (1.59).

2020-21: 10-12 Overall, 6-7 BIG EAST (6th) - WNIT
After beginning in late November, the COVID-19 season contained a little bit of everything. The Bluejays battled injuries to three starters, a month-long pause and even a game postponed after Creighton began warming up. Amidst the chaos Flanery was tasked with integrating a group of five freshmen. The highlight of the regular season were road victories over No. 19 DePaul (83-72 on Feb. 20) and at Seton Hall (77-76 in overtime on Feb. 13). Those triumphs helped give the Bluejays the confidence to deliver a pair of wins in the BIG EAST Tournament, downing Georgetown and Seton Hall to earn a spot in the WNIT. Creighton bested Bowling Green, before bowing out to Northern Iowa, 64-63 on March 20.

2019-20: 19-11 Overall, 11-7 BIG EAST (T-3rd)
Poised to return to the NCAA Tournament for the fifth time in nine seasons, the COVID-19 pandemic shortened a storybook season for the Bluejays. Jaylyn Agnew closed her home campaign with a Bluejay single-game record 43 points in a Senior Day win, yet that was just one highlight. Playing without Agnew the Bluejays rallied from 20-point halftime deficit to defeat No. 11 DePaul 63-61 in Chicago on Jan. 31. Creighton also bested No. 23 West Virginia in the Cancun Challenge, 82-75, and posted its fourth consecutive win over Nebraska (79-74 on Nov. 25). Agnew went on to earn the BIG EAST Player of the Year and put a bow on the season by becoming Creighton's first WNBA Draft selection.

2018-19: 15-16 Overall, 8-10 BIG EAST (T-6th)
Overcoming injuries that limited the Bluejays depth, Creighton was the only team in the BIG EAST to knock off the top three seeds, downing No. 13 Marquette and No. 19 DePaul in the regular season as well as Butler in the BIG EAST Tournament. The Bluejays reached the BIG EAST Tournament semifinals before bowing out to DePaul.

2017-18: 19-13 Overall, 11-7 BIG EAST (4th) - NCAA Second Round
The 2017-18 season was particularly gratifying for Flanery as the Bluejays returned to the NCAA Tournament. The route was far from linear as Creighton was one of eight bubble teams (four in and four out) announced the day before Selection Monday. During the show itself, the Bluejays were the final team from the eight announced. Once in the 'Dance', Creighton drew local scrimmage partner Iowa. The Bluejays' upset victory over the Hawkeyes capped a season that saw Flanery capture his 300th win (a 69-54 win over No. 18 Villanova on Dec. 28). In addition Creighton went 5-1 in overtime contests during the 2017-18 campaign, claiming a four-overtime win at Drake and a pair of wins in double-overtime as well.

2016-17: 24-8 Overall, 16-2 BIG EAST (T-1st) - NCAA Second Round
Flanery and the Bluejays claimed the program's first BIG EAST regular-season crown in 2016-17. Another reason the 2016-17 season was special, the Bluejays cracked the AP Poll as well as the USA Today Coaches Poll for the first time since 1992, checking in at No. 23 in the March 6 AP Poll. Despite a 1-3 start, the Bluejays posted a 24-8 record including a 76-49 win over Toledo in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament.

2015-16: 17-18 Overall, 8-10 BIG EAST (T-7th) - WNIT First Round
Creighton battled through an injury-plagued 2015-16 season to reach the BIG EAST Tournament championship game before falling to St. John's in the final. The three victories in the BIG EAST Tournament allowed the Bluejays to become eligible for WNIT play, where Creighton fell to eventual champion South Dakota.

2014-15: 17-14 Overall, 10-8 BIG EAST (T-5th) - WNIT First Round
The Bluejays second season in the BIG EAST featured five freshmen on the roster. Despite having such a young squad, Creighton reached the WNIT, falling at South Dakota in the opening round.

2013-14: 20-14 Overall, 12-6 BIG EAST (T-3rd) - WNIT Second Round
In their first year as a member of the BIG EAST, the Bluejays defeated each of their nine new conference foes at least once. The Bluejays battled their way to the semifinals of the BIG EAST Tournament and closed the season in the second round of the WNIT at South Dakota State.

2012-13: 25-8 Overall, 12-6 MVC (T-1st) - NCAA Second Round
The Bluejays posted 25 wins for the first time under Flanery, while also collecting the third NCAA Tournament victory in program history, a 61-56 win over No. 22 Syracuse. Creighton earned just its second NCAA at-large berth in program history after claiming a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season title. The 2012-13 season also featured a home victory over No. 25 Nebraska (66-57 on Dec. 5) and a 17-point comeback win over BYU at the home of the Utah Jazz. In addition, Creighton claimed a tournament championship in Cancun by downing Miami (Ohio) and South Florida and also posted an undefeated home record in MVC play. Flanery reached two personal milestones in 2012-13, surpassing Bruce Rasmussen as Creighton's all-time victory leader with his 197th win on Dec. 21 over Miami (Ohio) and claiming his 200th win on Jan. 5 at Southern Illinois.

2011-12: 20-13 Overall, 11-7 MVC (4th) - NCAA First Round
The Bluejays delivered an impressive effort against No. 14 St. John's in the 2012 NCAA Tournament. Despite falling to the Red Storm, 69-67, Creighton forced its future BIG EAST Conference rival into a last-second dash to the basket and a tear-drop bucket to secure the win. The Bluejays posted wins in eight of their final 10 games, earning Creighton's first NCAA Tournament appearance under Flanery with a run to the MVC Tournament Championship featuring wins over Northern Iowa, Missouri State and Drake in the final.

2010-11: 18-13 Overall, 11-7 MVC (T-2nd) - WNIT First Round
Powered by an 8-1 home record in MVC play, the Bluejays played their way into a crowded three-way tie for second. Tiebreakers, however, forced the Bluejays into the No. 4 seed and a first round loss to Wichita State.

2009-10: 21-11 Overall, 13-5 MVC (2nd) - WNIT Second Round
The Bluejays recorded their third straight 20-win season, reaching their second straight MVC Tournament final and third in a four-year span. Creighton, however, suffered a one-point setback to Northern Iowa and fell to Kansas in the WNIT Second Round.

2008-09: 22-12 Overall, 14-4 MVC (2nd) - WNIT Second Round
Creighton closed the season winning 20 of its final 26 games after a 2-6 start to the year. The Bluejays put together a school-record 11 straight MVC wins (Jan. 8 - Feb. 14), but fell 47-45 to Evansville in the MVC Tournament Final. Creighton downed UC Riverside by double-digits in the WNIT First Round, but fell at Kansas in the second round.

2007-08: 21-12 Overall, 12-6 MVC (4th) - WNIT Second Round
Flanery and the Bluejays fell one win short of a shared MVC regular-season title, advancing to the WNIT. Their 21-12 record marked an eight-win improvement, the 15th-best turnaround in the nation that year. Flanery earned his 100th head coaching victory against Indiana State on Jan. 31. The Bluejays followed that victory by topping No. 24 Illinois State on the Redbirds' home court on Feb. 2.

2006-07: 13-19 Overall, 8-10 MVC (6th)
The highlight of the 2006-07 campaign came in a run to the MVC Tournament Finals as the Bluejays upset Indiana State and Illinois State to set up a matchup with Drake. Despite forcing overtime, Creighton fell to the Bulldogs by one point, 65-64.

2005-06: 8-21 Overall, 5-13 MVC (T-9th)
After opening MVC play 4-0, the Bluejays fell on hard times with 13 straight setbacks. A win in the regular-season finale over Northern Iowa propelled Creighton to a opening round victory over Southern Illinois in the MVC Tournament.

2004-05: 19-10 Overall, 13-5 MVC (T-2nd) - WNIT First Round
Flanery engineered 19 wins and a third straight invite to the WNIT. Creighton went 3-0 against Big 12 teams, downing Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado, and put together an eight-game winning streak during the heart of the season.

2003-04: 24-9 Overall, 15-3 MVC (2nd) - WNIT Champions
Flanery and the Bluejays concluded the 2003-04 season by claiming the first national postseason tournament title in school history. Their 5-0 run through the postseason was capped by a 73-52 rout of UNLV at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. The Bluejays became the first team from the MVC to win the WNIT. Flanery's team set a then-WNIT record by making 44 three-point field goals, while shooting 89.9 percent (71-for-79) from the free throw line in the event.

2002-03: 24-9 Overall, 13-5 MVC (T-1st) - WNIT Semifinals
Flanery posted the best rookie season by a head coach in school and MVC history, leading Creighton to its second consecutive Valley regular-season title and a WNIT semifinal appearance. His 24 wins surpassed his predecessor, Connie Yori, for the most successful rookie coaching campaign in school history. His win total also made him the most successful first-year coach in conference history, topping Lisa Stone's 23 wins at Drake in 2000-01. He went on to tie Stone, following the 2003-04 season, for the best two-year start in league history, with 48 victories.

Berger's Playing Résumé

Creighton, 2010-14

2011-12 All-MVC First Team

2012 MVC Tournament MVP

2011 MVC Freshman of the Year

Berger begins her 12th season on the Bluejay bench in 2025-26. She is one of just two people to play and coach in an NCAA Women's Tournament game for the Bluejays, twice as a player (2012 and 2013) and six more as a coach (2017, 2018, 2022, 2023, 2024 and 2025).

In her four years in uniform, the Bluejays went a combined 83-48, while Creighton is 218-124 with Berger in a coaching role. Berger's combined record as a Bluejay stands at 301-172 entering the 2025-26 season.

Carli has done a little bit of everything for the Bluejays. She was the 2011 MVC Freshman of the Year and the 2012 MVC Tournament MVP, as she led the Bluejays to the first NCAA Tournament under head coach Jim Flanery in 2011-12. A veteran that battled injuries to navigate a return trip to the Dance in 2012-13, she immediately moved to the bench for Flanery. Berger spent two years as a graduate assistant (2014-16), one as the video coordinator (2016-17) and is currently in her eighth season as a Bluejay assistant coach.

Berger's best performance on the court came when her team needed it the most. During the 2012 MVC Tournament, Berger delivered a career-high 29 points in the Bluejays' semifinal win over Missouri State. One night later in the Finals against Drake, Berger supplied 19 points to guide Creighton to its first NCAA Tournament since 2001-02. She was named MVC Tournament MVP after averaging 19.7 points, 7.7 rebounds, 4.0 assists and 2.3 steals per game.

Carli closed her sophomore season with All-MVC First Team honors. Berger set Creighton MVC Tournament records by making 20 and attempting 26 free throws during the tournament. She was the highest-scoring sophomore in the MVC (14.4 ppg) and the first sophomore to lead the Bluejays in scoring since MVC Player of the Year Christy Neneman in 2001-02.

Forced to end her playing career (with the exception of a brief appearance on senior night) prior to the 2013-14 season due to chronic knee pain, Berger recorded 1,041 points over 97 games. "Getting hurt really opened my eye to the other side of sports. I enjoy the impact you can have on another person's life," said Berger.

Berger earned her a bachelor's degree in communications from Creighton in 2014. Two years later she earned a master's degree in leadership at Creighton. Carli married Nate Berger during the summer of 2019. The couple and their son, Luke, live in Omaha.

Southwest Minnesota State Head Coach, 2006-10
St. Cloud State Assistant Coach, 2004-06
Franklin College Head Coach, 2001-04
Augustana Assistant Coach, 1997-2001

Entering his second season at Creighton, Mike Jewett moved into the recruiting coordinator role during the summer of 2025. He is also primarily responsible for working with the Bluejay posts and assisting with team defensive game plans as well as implementation.

Before coming to Omaha, Jewett served as an assistant coach/interim head coach for South Dakota during the 2023-24 season. He also spent nine seasons on the bench at South Dakota State, including eight as the associate head coach, compiling a 223-71 record during his time in Brookings.

"Mike has a ton of relevant experience, has really good relationships with coaches in the areas we recruit," said head coach Jim Flanery. "He's a hard worker who knows the game and can push players to their potential. While seamlessly joining our culture, he'll also give different perspectives that will challenge the staff and the players."

Jewett has coached seven NCAA Tournament teams, highlighted by the 2019 South Dakota State squad that reached the NCAA Sweet 16. There were five seasons of more than 25 wins, five Summit League Tournament titles, four Summit League regular season crowns and the Jackrabbits qualified for the postseason every year he was on the bench.

With SDSU, Jewett's responsibilities included serving as recruiting coordinator, director of scouting and team defense, scheduling games, and working with the post position. He also assisted with practice and game planning, film breakdown, camps and clinics.

In addition to his stint at SDSU, Jewett has seven years of head coaching experience with four seasons at Southwest Minnesota State and three years at Franklin College (Ind.). He owns a career record of 110-85 as a head coach.

A native of Flandreau, South Dakota, Jewett has coached at the collegiate level throughout the Midwest for more than 25 years. He got his start in collegiate athletics at his alma mater, Augustana, in 1997. He helped the Vikings reach the 1999 and 2001 NCAA Division II Tournaments. He also served as an assistant at St. Cloud State, guiding the Huskies to the NCAA DII Elite Eight in 2005 and the NCAA DII Final Four in 2006.

He previously served as the girls' basketball head coach at Brandon Valley High School (1994-97) and was an English teacher at Marshall High School (Minn.) for two years.

Jewett is a University of South Dakota alumnus, receiving his master's degree in physical education with an emphasis in athletic administration in 1999. He earned his bachelor's degree from Augustana in 1997. Jewett and his wife, Michelle, have three children: Michaela, Kaden and Kate.

Akin-Otiko's Playing Résumé

Creighton, 2011-15

2014-15 All-BIG EAST Second Team

2014-15 BIG EAST Most Improved

Former Bluejay Alexis Akin-Otiko (2011-15) is returning to Creighton as an assistant coach for the 2025-26 season. Amongst her responsibilities are player development and working with the scout team.

Akin-Otiko's coaching career began immediately after Creighton as Alexis spent one season as a graduate assistant at Concordia University (Seward, Neb.), then returned to her high school (Bellevue West) for two seasons as an assistant coach. Working closely with former Bluejay assistant coach and player Chevelle Saunsoci, Akin-Otiko was the the Director of Player and Coach Development for DVLP Basketball from 2020-24 and she also served as an assistant coach for Iowa Western last season.

"Alexis will be a great addition to our staff. Her personality and ability to connect will make her a valuable part of our recruiting efforts and enhance the student-athlete experience of our current players," said head coach Jim Flanery. "She has a really solid background in and passion for skill training. That will aid us significantly in player development. As an alum and someone who played high school ball here, she also values Creighton and Omaha in a way that will help us on many levels and at many points."

During her four seasons on the court as a Bluejay, Akin-Otiko appeared in 131 games with 31 starts. She finished her career with 838 points, including 405 during the 2014-15 campaign. Alexis grabbed 482 rebounds, dished out 92 assists and collected 95 blocks as well as 109 steals for Creighton. Following the 2014-15 season she earned All-BIG EAST Second Team and was named the BIG EAST's Most Improved Player.

Akin-Otiko also was a part of two teams that earned berths in the NCAA Tournament (2011-12 & 2012-13), topping No. 7 Syracuse 61-56 in 2013 to give Creighton its first NCAA tournament win since 1994.

"I'm very excited to return to the place where I developed on the court and with people that helped shape the woman I've become," said Akin-Otiko. "Getting to help Coach Flanery and the entire staff offer the guidance and support necessary to continue the legacy of greatness established at Creighton is a precious opportunity that I'm elated to take on."

A native of Bellevue, Neb., Akin-Otiko was named the Nebraska Gatorade Player of the Year in 2011. As a Thunderbird she averaged 16.9 points and 7.9 rebounds as a senior, leading Bellevue West to a pair of state titles and set school records for points, rebounds and blocked shots, scoring nearly 1,700 career points for the T-Birds.

Alexis earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from Creighton University in 2016 and her master's of public health from Purdue Global in 2022.

Vickers' Playing Résumé

Creighton, 1999-03

CSC Academic All-District VII Second Team

Jenny Vickers returns for her 22nd season on the Creighton women's basketball staff, including her 13th season as the Director of Basketball Operations. Vickers is another of the trio to play a role in each of Flanery's eight trips to the NCAA Tournament. Vickers and Carli Berger have both played and coached in an NCAA Tournament game for the Bluejays.

Vickers' responsibilities include coordinating camps, coordinating travel, marketing the team and setting up community outreach. She also served as an assistant coach for the Bluejays from 2006-13 and was the graduate manager for two seasons (2004-06).

Her impact on the Creighton program has been impressive. Vickers coached forwards Megan Neuvirth and Sam Schuett, helping the duo to impressive freshmen campaigns in 2006-07. Neuvirth led the team and the Missouri Valley Conference in steals, topped the team in rebounding and earned league Newcomer of the Year honors. Schuett, meanwhile, led the Bluejays in three-point shooting and earned MVC All-Freshman Team recognition. Neuvirth, the 2008-09 MVC Defensive Player of the Year, had an outstanding career, finishing with more than 1,200 points and a school-record 929 career rebounds. Both Neuvirth and Schuett earned All-MVC First Team honors in 2009-10.

The former Jenny Burns was a forward for the Bluejays from 1999 through 2003. Prior to returning to the Bluejay bench, Vickers spent the 2003-04 season as an intern in the Creighton athletics department working with both marketing and ticketing. The Minnetonka, Minn., native was a starter on Creighton's back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference regular-season championship teams in 2001-02 and 2002-03. She was also a major contributor to Creighton's 2002 NCAA Tournament team and 2003 WNIT Final Four squad.

Vickers was twice named to the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team and earned College Sports Communicators Academic All-District VII Second Team accolades as a senior while graduating with a 3.96 grade-point average. She led the Bluejays in blocked shots as a senior and finished her career ranked in the top-10 in Creighton career blocked shots. Despite battling injuries during her first two seasons, she ranked eighth in games played when she finished her career.

Vickers earned bachelor of arts degrees in history and secondary education in December 2003. She and her husband Steve have three children, Connor, Sam and Walter. The family resides in Omaha.

1991-92 Creighton Bluejays
28-4 Overall • 13-1 WAC (1st)

The first women's basketball NCAA Tournament team at Creighton proved it belonged by defeating Long Beach State in front of 3,502 fans at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. The explosive Creighton offense led the NCAA in both field goal (.521) and three-point field goal percentage (.452), while establishing a school-record with 80.7 points per game.

Creighton Athletics Hall of Famer Kathy Halligan led five Bluejays averaging double figures with 16 points per contest. Halligan ended her record-setting career by being named the Western Athletic Conference MVP, and as Creighton's all-time leader with 2,159 points, 309 three-point field goals and a .454 three-point field goal percentage (including a school record .554 three-point percentage as a senior).

The Bluejays concluded their two-year affiliation with the WAC, winning both the regular-season and tournament titles, establishing a school record 16-game win streak (also notching another 12-game streak) and recording a 15-0 mark at home. Shannon Struby (First Team) and Melissa Sanford (Second Team) both earned All-WAC honors, while Bruce Rasmussen was named the WAC Coach of the Year in his final year on the sidelines.

Creighton 79

March 18, 1992
Omaha Civic Auditorium
Omaha, Neb.

Kris Kugel led four Creighton players in double figures as the Bluejays topped Long Beach State for a win in their first NCAA Tournament game. Kugel poured in a team-best 27 points while adding 10 rebounds for a double-double, while Becky Strathman also notched a double-dime with 11 points and 10 assists along with six steals for the Bluejays. CU closed the first half on an 11-2 run to own a 39-28 lead at the half. Long Beach State scored the first six points of the second half to close within five of the Bluejays, but CU responded with a 13-2 run to take control of the game. The Bluejays led by as many as 18 in the second half, when Kathy Halligan's three-pointer put CU up 66-48 with seven minutes to play. Halligan scored 19 points and added nine boards while shooting 5-of-8 from three-point range in the final home game of her Hall of Fame career. Melissa Sanford also added nine points and eight assists in the winning effort.

Stephen F. Austin.....75

March 22, 1992
Johnson Coliseum
Nacogdoches, Texas

The Bluejays' bid to reach the Sweet 16 fell just two points short, losing in 75-74 heartbreaker at Stephen F. Austin. CU held a 74-73 lead with 10 seconds to play after Kathy Halligan completed an old-fashioned three-point play. The Ladyjacks answered with a basket from Lynn Corn with two seconds on the clock to end the Bluejays' season. Creighton trailed 62-51 with 8:21 to play when the Bluejays put together a 23-11 run to take the late one point lead, only to fall in the final seconds. The Jays were led by Kris Kugel's 21 points and seven rebounds. Halligan wrapped up her career with 19 points on 5-of-9 shooting from long range, finishing with school records of 2,159 points and 309 three-pointers. Melissa Sanford, also playing in her final game, scored 14 points for the Jays, while Becky Strathman added seven assists. Creighton trailed SFA by nine at halftime and went down by as many as 17 early in the second half before staging the late comeback. The WAC champions finished with a school-record 28 wins.

Kris Kugel combined for 48 points and 17 rebounds in the 1992 NCAA Tournament.

1993-94 Creighton Bluejays
24-7 Overall • 14-2 MVC (2nd)

The 1993-94 Bluejays were led by First Team All-MVC performers, Becky Flynn and Kris Kugel. The Bluejays started the season by winning 15 of their first 17 contests, including a 10-game winning streak. The Bluejays' 106-44 win over Delaware on Dec. 30 remains the largest margin of victory (62) in school history.

Flynn registered the first triple-double in Creighton history during the winning streak. On Jan. 11, the forward scored 13 points, grabbed 11 rebounds and dished out 12 assists in a 76-54 win over Missouri. Flynn earned MVC Defensive Player of the Year honors while establishing a school record 105 steals, and Holly Sivesind was tabbed the MVC Freshman of the Year.

Kugel and Jenny Olson joined Flynn in averaging double figures, while finishing one-two, respectively, in field goal percentage in The Valley. Kugel ranked sixth in the NCAA with her .632 field goal percentage. The Jays went on the road in the NCAA Tournament and defeated Bowling Green, 84-73, before ending their season with a second-round loss at Texas Tech.

#24 Bowling Green 73

March 16, 1994
Anderson Arena
Bowling Green, Ohio

The Bluejays advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament by posting an 84-73 victory over seventh-seeded Bowling Green, handing the Falcons their first home loss of the season while snapping Bowling Green's 20-game winning streak. The Jays led by as many as 13 against the 24th-ranked Falcons, before Bowling Green claimed a three-point lead with just over six minutes to play. The Bluejays closed the game on a 31-17 run over the final six minutes, guided by Missy Miller's outside shooting. Miller, who made 5-of-9 three-pointers, drained three straight treys starting with 4:37 remaining to give the Bluejays a lead they would not relinquish. She finished with 15 points in 17 minutes off the bench. Jenny Olson came off the bench to drain 8-of-9 field goals and led five Bluejays in double-figures with 18 points.

March 19, 1994
Municipal Coliseum
Lubbock, Texas

Defending national champion, second-seeded and ninth-ranked Texas Tech used surprising performances by reserves Janice Farris, Nikki Heath and Melinda White to end the Bluejays' season in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Raider trio combined for 29 points to complement All-American Connie Robinson's game-high 17 points. Creighton failed to capitalize on the late first-half absences of Tech's top two scorers – Michi Atkins missed the final 10 minutes of the half with a sprained ankle and Robinson didn't play the final six minutes because of foul trouble, but Creighton trailed 34-33 at the half. Robinson scored 14 of her 17 points in the second half and Atkins scored eight points and logged five rebounds in the second half. Becky Flynn led the Jays with 16 points, while Kris Kugel finished the season ranked sixth in the NCAA with a .632 field goal percentage.

24-7 Overall • 16-2 MVC (1st)

The Bluejays captured their first Missouri Valley Conference regular-season and tournament titles, while reaching the 20-win plateau for the first time since 1993-94. Creighton used its three-point shooting to top opponents, ranking fifth in the NCAA in three-point field goals per game (8.0). Sophomore Dayna Finch drained 91 three-pointers, to rank ninth in the NCAA. Fellow sophomore Christy Neneman joined Missouri State's Jackie Stiles (1999) as the second sophomore in conference history to earn Player of the Year recognition. Neneman was also tabbed the tournament MVP after scoring 39 points against Drake in the championship game. Finch and freshman Laura Spanheimer earned Honorable Mention MVC honors, while Spanheimer also appeared on the All-Freshman and All-Defensive teams. The Bluejays put together a 10-game winning streak during their 16-2 run through the MVC and finished the season by winning 10 consecutive home games (9-0 MVC). Connie Yori was named the MVC Coach of the Year in her final season with the Bluejays. Creighton traveled to State College, Pa., (Penn State) to take on No. 23 Florida International as the 12th-seed in the Mideast Region. Appearing in their first NCAA tournament game since 1994, the Jays fell 73-58.

20-13 Overall • 11-7 MVC (4th)

Entering the Missouri Valley Tournament as the fourth seed, the Bluejays captured their first MVC Tournament championship under head coach Jim Flanery. The Bluejays did so by defeating the two teams, Missouri State and Drake, that Creighton had not gotten past in the regular-season. Creighton opened the MVC Tournament with a 53-46 win over Northern Iowa. The following day belonged to sophomore Carli Tritz as she punctuated the 56-47 win over Missouri State with 27 of her 29 points in the second half, including a stretch of 17 straight. The MVC championships saw Creighton take down the MVC Player of the Year, Rachel Hackbarth, and Drake to prevent the No. 8 seed from completing its improbable run. The Bluejays continued their fierce play in the NCAA Tournament, giving the 14th-ranked St. John's Red Storm all it wanted. Two free throws by Tritz pulled the Bluejays even in the closing seconds, but St. John's was able to take the game on a teardrop jumper for the win, 69-67. The 2011-12 season saw Creighton close the season with victories in eight of the Bluejays' final 10 contests. Tritz was an All-MVC First Team selection, closing the year with 462 points (14.4 ppg). Fellow sophomore Sarah Nelson led the Bluejays with 251 rebounds (7.6 rpg).

2002 NCAA Tournament

Creighton 58
#23 Florida International 73

March 15, 2002
Bryce Jordan Center
State College, Pa.

The Bluejays concluded the 2001-02 campaign with a 73-58 loss to fifth-seeded Florida International in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Making their first appearance in the tournament since 1994, the Jays saw a 32-28 halftime lead disappear as they were outscored 45-26 in the second half. Laura Spanheimer and Christy Neneman paced the Jays with 14 points each, while Teresa Wessling chipped in 11. Creighton led the Golden Panthers by seven early in the second half, but FIU held the Jays scoreless over the final four minutes and closed the game with a 14-0 run. Creighton shot just 26 percent from the field. FIU used the inside presence of Cheryl Moody and Cormisha Cotton, who contributed 12 and 13 rebounds respectively, to own a 53-35 rebounding advantage and out score CU 34-10 in the paint. Senior Kim Hover saw limited action due to a sprained ankle suffered in pre-game shootaround.

2012 NCAA Tournament

Creighton 67
#14 St. John's.....69

March 18, 2012
Lloyd Noble Center
Norman, Okla.

Creighton suffered a heartbreaking loss in the final second of its game against No. 14 St. John's in the first round of the NCAA Tournament. Nadirah McKenith's runner in the lane went through the hoop with one-tenth of a second left in regulation to give the third-seeded Red Storm a 69-67 win over the Bluejays. Trailing 65-61 with under two minutes remaining, senior DaNae Moore put the Bluejays on her shoulders. Moore converted a layup with 1:01 remaining to bring the Jays within a bucket. Seconds later, the Red Storm were whistled for a flagrant foul, sending Moore to the free throw line. With the season on the line, Moore hit both shots to tie the game at 65-65. After the Red Storm converted two free throws with 19 seconds remaining, sophomore Carli Tritz drove the lane to force contact, getting to the foul line with 5.7 seconds remaining. Tritz nailed the first free throw with ease, then after a St. John's timeout, she evened the game at 67-67. McKenith had just enough time to rush down court and hit a high-arcing five-footer to steal the game.

Laura Spanheimer led the Bluejays with 14 points and seven rebounds in a meeting with Florida International in the 2002 NCAA Tournament at Penn State.

Ally Jensen delivered 15 points in the Bluejays' 69-67 loss to No. 14 St. John's.

2012-13 Creighton Bluejays
25-8 Overall • 15-3 MVC (T-1st)

Coming off their first NCAA Tournament appearance under head coach Jim Flanery, the 2012-13 Bluejays entered the season with some unfamiliar expectations. The additional pressure did nothing but fuel the Bluejays, as Creighton posted its best record (25-8) under Flanery.

A key to the season was a comeback win over BYU. Down 17 points late in the second half, the Jays' rallied for a 65-62 overtime win. The Bluejays went on to down No. 25 Nebraska (66-57) on Dec. 5 in the next contest and shared the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season crown with a 15-3 MVC mark, including a perfect 9-0 conference record at home.

Along the way, Flanery claimed his 200th victory at the Creighton helm (Jan. 5 in Evansville) to cement his hold on the most victories by a Bluejay head coach. Junior Sarah Nelson and freshman Marissa Janning shined throughout the year, earning spots on the All-MVC First Team.

Despite a loss to Illinois State in the MVC Tournament, Flanery's consistently tough scheduling allowed the Jays to capture an at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1994. The Bluejays made the most of the opportunity, downing No. 22 Syracuse 61-56 on March 23 in an NCAA First Round contest in Knoxville, Tenn.

Junior McKenzie Fujan defined the Bluejays performance, scoring a team-high 24 points in the win. Creighton's season came to a close against No. 10 Tennessee in the NCAA Tournament's Second Round as the Bluejays fell, 68-52.

McKenzie Fujan dropped in 17 first half points as she led the Jays with a season-high 24 points in the 61-56 win over the Orange.

Alexis Akin-Otiko led Creighton with 12 points against Tennessee in the Jays' 68-52 loss.

2013 NCAA Tournament

Creighton (25-7) 61
#22 Syracuse (24-8) 56

March 23, 2013
Thompson-Boling Arena • Knoxville, Tenn.

Junior McKenzie Fujan scored a season-high 24 points as Creighton held off a late Syracuse rally to beat the Orange 61-56 and earn its first NCAA Tournament victory since 1994.

Creighton struggled from the field early as the Orange built a 14-5 lead with 10:26 remaining. Everything changed, however, at 9:59 with a three-ball from Fujan. The Weston, Neb., native found a sweet spot on the left wing to cut it to 14-8. Following a defensive stop, freshman Marissa Janning found Fujan in the same spot with the identical result. Down 17-12 moments later, Janning found Fujan wide open along the left wing a third time.

Fujan had 17 points for Creighton in the opening half, shooting 6-of-7 from the field, including 5-of-6 from beyond the arc.

Riding the momentum of the opening half, Creighton outscored Syracuse 9-2 to build a 33-26 lead. Fujan converted a layup to open the scoring, but Janning provided five points to lead the Jays' charge.

One last dash from the Orange made it a one possession game (55-52), but Janning, Fujan and Sarah Nelson each nailed two free throws to give the Jays the 61-56 win.

Creighton (25-8) 52
#10 Tennessee (26-7) 68

March 25, 2013
Thompson-Boling Arena • Knoxville, Tenn.

Creighton came out fighting early, taking its first lead at 16-15 on a three-pointer from senior Ally Jensen just before the midpoint of the first half. Tennessee, however, went on an 11-3 run to take control before half.

The Lady Vols came out strong to start the second half. After junior McKenzie Fujan scored the first bucket of the half, Tennessee scored the next 13 points in a span of 2:18 as the Lady Vols went ahead 48-31 with 14:56 left. The Bluejays fell behind as much as 52-33, only to show signs of life with a 7-0 run capped by a Jensen three-ball with 11:00 to play.

The Bluejays cut the deficit down to 59-50 with 4:30 left, only to have Meighan Simmons drain a three-pointer that squashed any momentum from the visitors. That started a 9-0 run until a Jordan Garrison lay-up in the final seconds.

Creighton shot 32.1 percent from the floor on the evening and were just 4-of-22 from three-point range. The Jays out rebounded UT 35-29, but turned the ball over 19 times. Tennessee shot 48.9 percent for the game, including 6-of-10 from downtown, and went also 16-for-19 at the stripe.

2016-17 Creighton Bluejays
24-8 Overall • 16-2 BIG EAST (T-1st)

After starting the season with a 1-3 record, it may have been hard to believe that Creighton would deliver one of its best seasons in school history. The Bluejays went on to win 22 of the next 25 games, including 16 of 18 league contests to claim a share of the BIG EAST regular-season title. Creighton climbed into the Associated Press Top 25 poll for the first time since 1992, checking in at No. 23 on March 6.

After earning the second at-large berth to the NCAA Tournament under head coach Jim Flanery, the Bluejays' success continued as Creighton easily disposed of Toledo in the first round, 76-49. Matched up with site host, Oregon State, Creighton pushed the eighth-ranked Beavers to the end before succumbing in the Second Round.

Sophomore Audrey Faber and fifth-year senior Marissa Janning excelled throughout the season as the duo averaged 12.8 and 11.6 points per game to lead Creighton. Faber was rewarded with a BIG EAST First Team selection, while Janning earned a spot on the BIG EAST Second Team.

While Faber and Janning earned the headlines, seniors Brianna Rollerson and Lauren Works also went out on top. Rollerson collected seven double-doubles as she grabbed a team-high 227 rebounds to earn the BIG EAST Most Improved Player Award. Works, meanwhile, hit game-tying three-pointers in both of the Bluejays overtime wins (vs. Georgetown on Jan. 8 and at Seton Hall on Jan. 22) and also nabbed the BIG EAST Sportsmanship Award.

Marissa Janning took over the contest with Toledo with 15 points in the first quarter.

Sydney Lamberty delivered a combined 35 points in the Bluejays' two NCAA contests.

2017 NCAA Tournament

Toledo (25-9) 49
Creighton (24-7) 76

March 17, 2017
Gill Coliseum • Corvallis, Ore.

A 15-point opening quarter from senior Marissa Janning sent Creighton to a 76-49 win over Toledo during the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Bluejays came out firing from the jump as Janning delivered Creighton's first four points, followed by a three-pointer from sophomore Audrey Faber to take a 7-0 lead. Creighton's edge grew to 21-6 with 3:34 left in the period, thanks to treys from Janning and senior Lauren Works. The Bluejays held a 27-12 advantage after one period.

Janning was forced to the sideline late in the opening quarter with two fouls, but Faber stepped up her game by getting to the foul line (4-4 in the second quarter). The rest of the Bluejays continued to knock down three-pointers (7-of-10 in the first half) as Creighton led 44-22 at the break.

Toledo opened the second half with six straight points to close within 16 (44-28), but junior Sydney Lamberty ended the Rockets' launch with five of the next seven points. The Bluejays pushed its lead to its largest margin (28 points) at 63-35 by the end of the third on another three-ball by Lamberty.

Creighton (24-8) 52
#8 Oregon State (31-4) 64

March 19, 2017
Gill Coliseum • Corvallis, Ore.

The Bluejays gave No. 8 Oregon State a battle in the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament, but the Beavers came out with the 64-52 win.

Playing in front of over 5,000 Beaver fans the Bluejays felt a few jitters as Oregon State grabbed an 11-4 early advantage and led 17-10 after the first quarter.

Creighton's offense started to pick up steam in the second period, but each time the Bluejays began to peck into the lead the Beavers answered. Creighton came as close as five early in the second via a running jumper from junior Sydney Lamberty (19-14 with 7:40 on the clock), yet Oregon State got the next four to push back out by nine. The Bluejays closed within five once more with 3:22 left on consecutive layups by sophomore Audrey Faber and freshman Jaylyn Agnew (28-23), but the Beavers closed the half on an 11-4 burst to hold a 39-27 lead at halftime.

Down 50-35 midway through the third, Creighton scored five straight on a trey from Faber and two free throws from Lamberty.

Consecutive buckets from senior Brianna Rollerson and Lamberty early in the fourth forced Oregon State head coach Scott Rueck to use a timeout with the Bluejays down just 54-48 (6:42). Oregon State was able to hold Creighton at bay.

2017-18 Creighton Bluejays
19-13 Overall • 11-7 BIG EAST (4th)

The 2017-18 season was easily one for the record book, one that saw the Bluejays giving extra effort time and time again. The Bluejays set the NCAA record by playing 11 overtime periods over six contests. Creighton went 5-1 in those games, highlighted by a double overtime win over Northern Iowa at home (89-78 on Nov. 21), a four overtime marathon victory at Drake (108-100 on Dec. 3), and a double overtime thriller in Providence (87-84) on Feb. 10.

It wasn't just games themselves that came down to the wire. The day before the NCAA Tournament field was unveiled, the selection committee announced eight teams that represented the final four at-large teams in the 'Dance' as well as the first four teams out. The Bluejays were not only one of the eight announced, Creighton was the last team of that group shown during Selection Monday.

Having already painted the state blue during the regular season, the Bluejays pushed bragging rights east during the NCAA Tournament as Creighton upset No. 6 seed Iowa, 76-70 in the First Round. Two days later the season came to a close against No. 9 UCLA.

On the court, senior Sydney Lamberty proved to be the ultimate utility player, playing 1,230 minutes of a possible 1,335 during the season. Lamberty dished out a team-best 172 assists, was second on the squad with 198 rebounds and third in scoring with 380 points. Junior Audrey Faber and sophomore Jaylyn Agnew, meanwhile earned All-BIG EAST Second Team honors finishing with 475 and 464 points, respectively.

Jaylyn Agnew was dominant in the Bluejays' first round win over Iowa, leading CU with 24 points.

The second round matchup with UCLA saw Audrey Faber step up with 20 points.

Jaylyn Agnew and Sydney Lamberty combined for 44 points to lead the No. 11 seeded Creighton women's basketball team to a 76-70 victory over No. 6 seed Iowa.

The teams were tied at 19 after one quarter after Agnew's layup beat the buzzer. The Bluejays took a 34-31 lead into the intermission when Agnew found Lamberty for a reverse layup in the final seconds of the second quarter. Agnew paced the Bluejays with 11 points in the first half, helping to offset 16 points and 11 rebounds before the break by Iowa All-American Megan Gustafson.

The Bluejays took a 56-50 lead into the fourth quarter, limiting Gustafson to just one shot from the field in the third quarter. Creighton stretched its lead in the fourth frame (59-50) to nine when Audrey Faber's three-pointer connected with 8:49 to play, only to see Gustafson answer with five straight points to draw the Hawkeyes within four. But Lamberty would counter with a three-pointer with 6:19 left to push the Creighton lead back to 62-55.

At one point Lamberty scored nine straight for Creighton, including a hoop with 1:37 left that gave the Bluejays a 68-61 lead and prompted a Hawkeye timeout. Iowa quickly answered with a trey, but the Bluejays held on down the stretch.

Creighton (19-13).....64
#9 UCLA (26-7).....86

March 19, 2018
Pauley Pavilion • Los Angeles, Calif.

Despite a strong performance from Audrey Faber, the Creighton women's basketball team dropped an 86-64 contest to the ninth-ranked UCLA Bruins in the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament.

Faber opened the game with a trey from the left-corner to give the Bluejays an advantage, but the Bruins rattled off 13 consecutive points over four minutes to surge ahead 13-3 (4:51).

UCLA came out quickly once more in the second period, racing out to a 32-15 lead. Faber rallied her troops with a driving jumper to start a 7-0 Creighton run, followed by a layup from Sydney Lamberty to make it 32-19. Then Faber connected from long range as the Bluejays cut the deficit to 32-22 (6:55). The two squads exchanged bursts of five points, pushing the contest to 37-27 (5:07), however it was UCLA that closed the half with a final run to take a 49-32 edge into the half.

While both teams shot over 50 percent in the first half, Creighton went cold in the third quarter. The Bluejays closed the period just 2-of-13 (15%) trailing by as much as 28 in the frame and went to the fourth period down 71-45. Creighton and UCLA liberally used their bench in the final frame, with the Bluejays getting no closer than 21 the rest of the way.

2021-22 Creighton Bluejays
23-10 Overall • 15-5 BIG EAST (3rd)

The Bluejays historic season began slowly as Creighton dropped two of its first three games. A dominant victory over South Dakota State (67-55 on Nov. 21) ignited a five-game win streak, including 69-62 over Arizona State (Dec. 12). Just four days later a meeting between future Sweet 16 teams took place in D.J. Sokol Arena as the Bluejays and South Dakota battled back and forth. Each team shot 14-of-24 (58.3%) from the field in the second half as the Coyotes claimed the contest 73-71.

The next five games turned Creighton's season as the Bluejays bested Providence 71-56 in a road game on Dec. 19, then immediately flew to Fayetteville for an 81-72 road win over Arkansas less than 48 hours later. Late in the season, this was the game that both players and coaches pointed to as a turning point. Creighton went on to defeat Xavier and Marquette, then pushed No. 11 Connecticut before falling 63-55 in Gampel Pavilion.

Coming off the road game at Connecticut, the Bluejays began to roll with wins over Seton Hall, St. John's, a 95-44 win at Butler and an 80-70 victory at Georgetown. After splitting games at Villanova (74-64 loss) and Providence (95-71 victory), Creighton readied for its home game with No. 10 Connecticut. The Bluejays raced out to a 20-11 lead after one frame and held a 32-30 edge at the half. The Huskies, however, took control in the second half to claim a 76-56 victory.

Creighton went on to win five of its final seven BIG EAST games, including convincing victories over Butler (96-49) and at St. John's (107-59) that saw the Bluejays break the program record for three-pointers in consecutive contests with 20 and 22 three-pointers respectively.

After a thrilling 97-91 win in double overtime at Seton Hall (Feb. 20), the Bluejays dropped their regular season finale to DePaul (90-84) and were upset in the opening round of the BIG EAST Tournament by Seton Hall (66-65) on March 5.

Feeling safe about reaching the NCAA Tournament, the Bluejays used the two week break to prepare for an extended run. As the brackets were announced a quiet confidence grew as Creighton was headed to familiar territory in Iowa City. For a decade the Bluejays and Hawkeyes had played each other in a preseason scrimmage in Carver-Hawkeye Arena. In addition, Creighton senior Rachael Saunders came to Creighton from Iowa City, while Bluejay transfer Lauren Jensen came to Creighton after her freshman season at Iowa.

2021-22 Creighton Bluejays
23-10 Overall • 15-5 BIG EAST (3rd)

Following a strong showing in a First Round win over No. 7 seed Colorado (84-74), the Bluejays earned a Second Round matchup with No. 8 Iowa on ABC. Creighton embraced the moment, closing the opening quarter with consecutive three-pointers from Jensen to claim a 23-17 edge. Creighton's advantage grew to as much as 12 in the second period (38-26) and held a 38-32 lead at the half. Late in the final frame Iowa had surged ahead (62-58), but Jensen refused to let the moment get away. Instead, she brought the Bluejays within two with a mid-range jumper and drained a trey to give Creighton a 63-62 advantage with 12.6 seconds on the clock. The Bluejays held on for the 64-62 win, setting up a Sweet 16 meeting with No. 10 Iowa State in Greensboro, North Carolina.

In the meeting with the Cyclones it was Morgan Maly's turn to step into the limelight. The Nebraska native delivered all of her team-high 21 points in the second and third quarters to push Creighton to a 59-51 lead heading to the fourth quarter. Seniors Tatum Rembao and Payton Brotzki combined to push the lead to 66-53 with 7:16 remaining as the Bluejays danced their way into the Elite Eight.

Creighton's NCAA run came to a close against the eventual NCAA Champion, No. 1 South Carolina one step shy of the Final Four.

The Bluejays magical run was fueled by sophomores Emma Ronsiek, Jensen and Maly with each of the trio collecting BIG EAST hardware. Ronsiek was an All-BIG EAST First Team selection, Jensen was an All-BIG EAST Second Team selection and Most Improved Player and Maly was the BIG EAST Sixth Woman of the Year.

Behind the scenes the tandem of Rembao and Molly Mogensen helped guide the Bluejay offense to an NCAA-leading squad in assists (668), assist-to-turnover ratio (1.59) and assists per game (20.2).

Molly Mogensen clinched a NCAA First Round win over Colorado with Creighton's final nine points against the Buffaloes.

Emma Ronsiek delivered a double-double with 13 points and 10 rebounds in the Bluejays' 64-62 win at No. 8 Iowa.

2022 NCAA Tournament

Colorado (22-9) 74

March 18, 2022 • Carver-Hawkeye Arena
Iowa City, Iowa

Powered by a combined 52 points from sophomores Morgan Maly, Lauren Jensen and Molly Mogensen, Creighton moved on to the NCAA Second Round with an 84-74 win over Colorado.

Creighton battled from behind early as Colorado scored the first seven points of the game and jumped out to an 11-2 lead. The Bluejays chipped away at the Colorado advantage with a three-point play from sophomore Emma Ronsiek and a pair of layups from Maly and Jensen to cut the deficit down to 17-14 with 1:38 remaining in the opening period.

The game turned in Creighton favor in the second quarter with a 15-4 run over the final 5:24. Down 27-21 the Bluejays pulled even with a 6-0 run on a pair of buckets by Maly and a mid-range jumper from Jensen to knot the game at 27-27 (4:26). Down 31-27 with just over 90 seconds remaining, Creighton closed the half with nine straight points, seemingly capped by a driving layup at 33-31 with 24 seconds left by Ronsiek. The South Dakota native alertly stole the inbound pass, then found Maly for a trey to send the Bluejays to the locker room with a 36-31 edge.

Colorado was able to pull even at 41-41 in the third, only to watch a pullup jumper from senior Payton Brotzki, a layup by Mogensen and Brotzki's three-ball give Creighton a 48-41 lead (5:52). Colorado mounted an early run in the final frame, getting within two at 63-61 (6:54), only to watch Maly connect for two free-throws and Mogensen knock down a trey and a layup to make it 70-61 (4:01). Mogensen closed the game with nine points in the final frame, helping Creighton keep Colorado at bay.

March 20, 2022 • Carver-Hawkeye Arena
Iowa City, Iowa

Sophomore Lauren Jensen's three-pointer with 12.6 seconds left helped the Creighton women's basketball team clinch a trip to its first Sweet 16 in program history with a 64-62 win at No. 8 Iowa. Jensen scored nine of Creighton's 13 points in the fourth quarter as the Bluejays ended the game on a 6-0 run in front of a sellout crowd of 14,382.

A back-and-forth battle throughout the first half saw Creighton hold a 38-32 edge at the break and the Bluejays took a 51-48 lead into the fourth quarter.

Early in the final frame Iowa got consecutive treys by Gabbie Marshall to take a 56-54 lead with 6:51 left. A lay-up by Monika Czinano with 5:31 remaining gave Iowa its biggest lead at 58-54 and prompted a timeout from Creighton head coach Jim Flanery to slow Iowa's 8-0 run.

Down 60-56 with just over three minutes remaining, Jensen began to burn her former team. She knocked down a pull-up jumper with 2:46 left to get Creighton within two points. Moments later Jensen's driving hoop with 1:26 left got the Bluejays back within two.

After both squads missed chances, Creighton got a stop and senior Tatum Rembao fed Jensen at the top of the key, who buried a go-ahead three-pointer with 12.6 left. The Hawkeyes went to their National Player of the Year candidate Caitlin Clark, who missed a lay-up before Mogensen grabbed the rebound. Iowa had two fouls to give before hacking Emma Ronsiek with 3.6 left. She made the second shot and Iowa called timeout to advance the ball.

Down two, the Hawkeyes missed on a trio of chances in the paint as the Creighton bench stormed the court in celebration at the final horn.

Sophomore Morgan Maly scored a career-high 21 points to lead the Creighton team to its first Elite Eight in program history with a 76-68 victory over 10th-ranked and third-seeded Iowa State.

Maly's outburst helped Creighton out score the Cyclones 30-4 in bench points. Senior Tatum Rembao had 17 of her 19 points in the second half, while Payton Brotzki contributed 13 points and six rebounds.

Maly heated up in a big way in the second quarter, scoring 14 of CU's 17 points to help the Bluejays even the score at 30 at the half. Creighton came out firing in the third, using a 13-6 run to open the second half and take a 43-36 lead with 7:15 remaining.

Creighton's lead reached double-figures for the first time at 61-51 with 9:04 remaining. Rembao drilled a three-pointer to make it 66-53. Emily Ryan kept ISU in the game with repeated drives to trim the Bluejay lead to 68-64 with 2:11 to go.

Creighton (23-10) 50
#1 South Carolina (33-2)..... 80

March 27, 2022 • Greensboro Coliseum
Greensboro, North Carolina

The greatest postseason run in the history of Creighton women's basketball came to an end with the Bluejays falling to top-seeded and top-ranked South Carolina, 80-50.

Creighton's Lauren Jensen was named to the All-Tournament Team of the Greensboro Regional after sharing for the CU lead (along with Morgan Maly) with 57 points in the postseason and scoring in double-figures all four contests.

Molly Mogensen, who came up with big play after big play in CU's First Round win vs. Colorado, was carried off the floor with 4:28 left in the quarter unable to put any weight on her right ankle. Despite the injury she returned to the floor in the second quarter, but was limited to nine minutes.

Creighton trailed just 25-18 early in the second quarter before a 19-2 run over the next seven minutes saw the top seed pull away. The Bluejays scored five of the final seven points of the second quarter and trailed 46-25 at intermission.

Down big on the scoreboard, the Bluejays stayed in the fight, opening the third quarter on a 12-9 run to get within 18 (55-37) before the Gamecocks scored the next nine points and owned a 64-40 lead after three quarters. The Gamecocks scored the first six points of the fourth quarter and led by as much as 35 (80-45) before a game-ending 5-0 surge by CU.

22-9 Overall • 15-5 BIG EAST (3rd)

With the vast majority of the group that reached the Elite Eight in 2022, Bluejay women's basketball entered the 2022-23 season with lofty expectations. Creighton opened the season ranked in the AP poll for the first time in school history and won its first seven games, including three against ranked foes. The Bluejays opened the season with a 78-69 win at #23 South Dakota State, a 77-51 home win over #22 Nebraska and a 67-46 win at #25 Villanova. The first loss of the season came at St. John's and started a streak of five losses in seven games. Creighton gathered themselves to win nine of its next 10 games, but dropped a heartbreaker at #6 Connecticut by two points, 62-60, on Feb. 15.

The Bluejays reeled off three more victories to close the season, then rallied from down five with 16 seconds remaining to defeat Seton Hall in overtime of the BIG EAST Tournament Quarterfinals, 75-74. The season, however, ended with losses to #10 Villanova in the Semifinals and an 81-66 loss to Mississippi State in the NCAA Tournament.

Lauren Jensen and Morgan Maly each earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors, while Emma Ronsiek collected All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention.

The Creighton women's basketball season came to a close as the Bluejays fell to Mississippi State 81-66 in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Bluejays fell victim to a sizzling start by the Bulldogs as Mississippi State hit five treys in the opening quarter and connected on 11-of-19 (57.9%) in the game. The 11 three-pointers were a season-high for Mississippi State.

Trailing by as much as 17 in the second quarter, Creighton caught fire late in the first half with an 8-0 run. Juniors Emma Ronsiek and freshman Kiani Lockett each connected from beyond the arc, then junior Lauren Jensen delivered a driving layup to make it 44-35 with under a minute remaining in the half. The Bulldogs drained a three of their own, using a screen by 6-5 Jessika Carter to make it 47-35. Jensen answered with another driving layup to make it 47-37 at the break.

After halftime the Bluejays started 2-of-24 (8.3%), falling behind by as much as 23 at 70-47. The Bluejays began to heat up in the final frame, but the deficit was too much to overcome.

Creighton got a game-high 22 points from Jensen and 21 from Ronsiek in the loss. Mississippi State had five players finish in double figures, led by 20 from Jerkaila Jordan and 14 from Carter.

2023-24 Creighton Bluejays
26-6 Overall • 15-3 BIG EAST (2nd)

The Bluejays' 2023-2024 season started off hot, winning eight of the first nine games, including a key road victory over rival, Nebraska, 79-74 on Nov. 19. Three days later, Creighton traveled to Mexico for the Cancun Challenge and continued its dominance, defeating Georgia Tech (57-46 on Nov. 23) and Michigan State (83-69 on Nov. 24). The Bluejays collected two more wins to wrap up non-conference play, including a dominant victory over Northern Iowa, scoring 115 points with 20 made three pointers. Creighton dropped its conference opener on the road against No. 19 Marquette, but quickly recovered to go on a three game win streak.

Following Creighton's early success, the Bluejays ran into a bump in the road against Final Four competitor, No. 12 Connecticut, in a home contest on Jan. 3. The loss proved useful as the Bluejays responded with an 11-game winning streak through BIG EAST action.

The Bluejays went on to push No. 15 Connecticut in a road contest, but fell short on Feb. 19 in the XL Center (Hartford, Conn.). Creighton once again rallied to claim victories in the final three games of the regular season play against Villanova (79-69), Xavier (99-57), and Seton Hall (72-65).

Six days later, Creighton went on to face Seton Hall in their second consecutive game for the opening round of the BIG EAST Tournament after playing the Pirates in the regular season finale. In repeat fashion, the Bluejays earned a victory with the same score, 72-65, in Uncasville, Conn. Following the first round win, the Bluejays suffered a hard fought loss to Georgetown, falling 55-46 on March 10.

Creighton was confident in qualifying for the NCAA Tournament for the third straight season and utilized the extended break to rest up and make a run in the Big Dance. The Bluejays convincingly won the opening round of the NCAA Tournament against No. 20 UNLV by a score of 87-73. The Bluejays also knocked in 15 three pointers to take down the Rebels.

In the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament, the Bluejays' incredible season came to a close at Pauley Pavilion against No. 6 UCLA. Creighton came out firing, leading 42-34 at the half. The Bluejays were unable to contain the Bruin high-powered offense in the second half and dropped the contest, 67-63.

The senior trio of Lauren Jensen, Morgan Maly, and Emma Ronsiek all collected All-BIG EAST First Team honors, while Maly also earned a spot on the BIG EAST All-Tournament squad and College Sports Communicators Academic All-America Third Team honors.

Senior Emma Ronsiek scored 23 points in the second half to lead Creighton past UNLV in the First Round of the NCAA Tournament.

Lauren Jensen delivered 20 points as Creighton pushed #6 UCLA to the brink at home in the Second Round.

Emma Ronsiek scored all 23 of her points after halftime to help seventh-seeded and 24th-ranked Creighton to an 87-73 win over 10th-seeded and 20th-ranked UNLV in First Round action of the 2024 NCAA Women's Basketball Tournament at Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles, Calif.

After falling behind 12-9 in the opening minutes that featured three ties and four lead changes, the Bluejays closed the first quarter on a 14-4 run to take a 23-16 lead after 10 minutes. Jayme Horan and Lauren Jensen each made two three-pointers during the surge.

The Bluejays remained in front throughout the second quarter, extending the lead into double-digits at 33-23 after a Morgan Maly three-pointer with 6:26 left. UNLV used a 7-0 run to draw within four at 36-32 before the Bluejays hit the afterburners on an 8-0 run in under a minute to take a 44-32 lead into the break.

Creighton made 10 three-pointers in the first half and were led in the scoring column by Jensen (13) and Maly (12). Desi-Rae Young paced UNLV with 12 points and eight rebounds before the break.

The third quarter was the Ronsiek show. After a scoreless first half when she missed all five of her shots, the senior from Sioux Falls, S.D., made seven of her first nine shots. Her 16 points in the quarter helped Creighton stretch the lead to 65-48. UNLV would score the final five points of the quarter to trim the Bluejay lead to 65-53.

Jensen and Ronsiek salted the game away with seven points each in the final frame, preventing UNLV from getting within double-digits throughout the fourth quarter.

Despite 52 combined points from seniors Lauren Jensen, Morgan Maly and Emma Ronsiek, the Creighton women's basketball season came to an end as the Bluejays fell to No. 6 UCLA, 67-63 in the Second Round of the NCAA Tournament.

Soaring out of the gates, Creighton quickly built a 10-6 lead as Ronsiek connected on a layup and a jumper, while Jensen buried a pair of three-pointers. UCLA countered with an 11-5 burst to claim a 17-15 lead before a three-pointer and a pair of free throws from Maly gave the Bluejays a 20-19 edge after the first period.

Creighton heated up in a big way in the second frame, scoring 11 of the first 13 points to seize the first double-digit lead of the contest at 31-21. Maly sparked the Bluejay surge with a layup, while Jensen, Molly Mogensen and Ronsiek each connected on jumpers, before Ronsiek dialed up a trifecta to give the Bluejays its largest lead of the game. The two squads traded baskets down the stretch, as the Bluejays took a 42-34 advantage into the locker room.

CU was paced by 15 points from Jensen and 14 more from Ronsiek, as the Jays shot 58.6 percent from the floor in the first half. Lauren Betts led the Bruins with 14 points in her first game back from a foot injury.

After a fast break layup to open the second half by senior Mallory Brake that gave Creighton a 44-34 lead, the Bruins embarked on a 9-2 run to cut the deficit down to 46-43 with 5:40 remaining in the third quarter. UCLA took its first lead since the second quarter (17-15) moments later at 56-53 before a Jensen three leveled the game at 56-56 after three quarters of play.

Knotted at 56-56 heading into the final quarter, UCLA seized control early, scoring the first seven points of the frame to take a 63-56 edge. To the surprise of no one, Creighton had one last push in it, closing to within two points at 65-63. UCLA locked down on defense over the final two minutes to secure the 67-63 victory.

26-7 Overall • 16-2 BIG EAST (2nd)

Creighton's quintet of seniors announced before the academic year of 2023-24 concluded they would return for a final season as Bluejays. The group of Mallory Brake, Jayme Horan, Lauren Jensen, Molly Mogensen and Morgan Maly made their last ride, reaching a fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament. In addition the group led Creighton to tie the best BIG EAST mark in school history at 16-2 and proved the Bluejay women's program belongs amongst the elite, setting a single-game attendance record of 11,141 in a contest played in the CHI Health Center Omaha.

Individually, Lauren Jensen and Morgan Maly earned All-BIG EAST First Team honors, each surpassed 2,000 points at Creighton and were named to the D1-AAA ADA Scholar Athlete First Team. Jensen earned AP and WBCA All-America Honorable Mention, while Maly was a CSC Academic All-American and was named the D1-AAA ADA Women's Scholar-Athlete of the Year and earned the $5,000 post-graduate scholarship, becoming the first Bluejay to earn both honors.

Molly Mogensen also earned All-BIG EAST Honorable Mention, the BIG EAST Co-Sportsmanship Award and crossed over 1,000 career points.

2025 NCAA Tournament

Illinois (22-9) 66
#22 Creighton (26-7) 57

March 22, 2025
Moody Center • Austin, Texas

The historic run of Creighton's 2024-25 senior class came to a close in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament as the Bluejays fell to Illinois, 66-57, on Saturday, March 22.

The game itself saw Illinois capture an 18-10 advantage after one quarter and fend off each attempt by the Bluejays to draw close. After shooting just 22.2 percent in the opening frame, the Bluejays found their footing as Creighton closed within five at the half, racing into the locker room after a trey from junior Kiani Lockett.

In the third quarter, the game got as close as two points at 35-33 (7:13) and again at 41-39 (3:57) on a three-pointer from junior Kennedy Townsend. Illinois, however, responded with five consecutive points and held Creighton at arm's length the rest of the way.

Although the loss ended Creighton's season with a 26-7 record, the contributions of the departing senior class have forever altered the trajectory of the Bluejay Women's Basketball landscape. The quintet of Mallory Brake, Jayme Horan, Lauren Jensen, Molly Mogensen and Morgan Maly took the program from a 10-12 Covid Season in 2020-21 to a legacy of four consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances (a program record). Along the way setting a new standard that took the Bluejay program to its first Elite Eight, within moments a second trip to the Sweet 16 in 2024. Elevating a program, however, is about more than simply celebrating victories, it is also about setting the standard of expectations. Moving forward NCAA Tournaments are the expectation, rather than the occasional highlight.

The individual accomplishments have been recorded and acknowledged, but the redefining of the Creighton program is the true legacy of this team.

23-7 Overall • Independent

Competing in their final year as an independent, the 1986-87 team finally garnered national recognition with their third consecutive 20-win season earning them a national postseason tournament berth. The Bluejays opened the year with eight consecutive victories, including wins over Nebraska, Kansas State and Kansas. Creighton Hall of Famers Pam Gradoville and Tanya Warren led the Bluejays in scoring, with Gradoville establishing a then school record with 22.0 points per game (22nd in the NCAA). Warren was named to the Kodak All-District V team, averaging 18.7 points per game and dishing out a school record 228 assists to rank 10th in the NCAA. Janet Ensign set a school record with 260 rebounds. The first postseason win in school history came on March 19, 1987, when the Creighton defeated Stephen F. Austin, 76-68, at the WNIT held in Amarillo, Texas. The Bluejays went on to fall to Cal in the semifinals, but bounced back to defeat Providence, 91-89 in the consolation game.

16-14 Overall • 9-9 MVC (7th)

The Bluejays were part of a record-setting season for the Missouri Valley Conference, as the league sent six women's teams to the postseason. The Bluejays finished seventh in the regular season but helped their WNIT chances by becoming the second No. 7 seed to advance to the MVC Tournament Championship game, joining the 1997 Wichita State in accomplishing the feat. Creighton eventually lost to Evansville, 75-72 in overtime, in the MVC Final and fell at Kansas State in the WNIT to end their season. Creighton played four ranked opponents during the season, winning at No. 25 Missouri State on Jan. 2. The Bluejays did not win more than three consecutive games all season, playing in a very balanced and competitive Valley. Taya Allen earned MVC Newcomer of the Year and honorable mention recognition, while Krissie Spanheimer joined Allen on the All-MVC Honorable Mention squad.

24-9 Overall • 13-5 MVC (T-1st)

The 2002-03 Bluejays coupled with the 2001-02 squad to become the first teams in school history to make consecutive postseason tournaments, advancing to the WNIT Final Four. Creighton earned a share of the Missouri Valley Conference regular-season title with Indiana State, but fell in the semifinals of the MVC Tournament. The Bluejays dominated at home, going 13-0 in the regular season, but struggled to a 7-7 record on the road in regular-season play. When the Bluejays went to Maine for the first round of the WNIT, nothing indicated they'd be able to advance past the Black Bears. But after knocking off the Bears (the team with the most wins entering the WNIT), Creighton won at Siena with a 96-point output, and then traveled to Iowa where they defeated the Hawkeyes for the second time that season. The Bluejays' run came to an end in front of a Civic Auditorium record 4,439 fans, as Creighton lost to eventual WNIT champion Auburn in the semifinals.

The loss ended the Bluejays' 23-game home winning streak, the second-longest streak in the NCAA at the time. For the second straight season, the Bluejays set a school and MVC record for three-point field goals made with 259, ranking sixth in the NCAA with 7.8 three-pointers per game. Christy Neneman became the third player in league history to win consecutive conference Player of the Year honors, Laura Spanheimer was honored as the MVC Defensive Player of the Year (while ranking fifth in the NCAA with a 45.8 3FG percentage) and head coach Jim Flanery became the winningest rookie coach in conference history.

2004 WNIT Champions
24-9 Overall • 15-3 MVC (2nd)

Creighton capped its 2003-04 season with a five-game winning streak in the WNIT to claim the first national postseason tournament title by any athletic program in school history.

The 73-52 throttling of UNLV in front of a rowdy Civic Auditorium crowd concluded one of the most successful seasons in school history. The Bluejays finished with a 24-9 record for the second straight year, becoming the first team in Missouri Valley Conference history to win at least 24 games in three consecutive campaigns. Head coach Jim Flanery improved his record to 48-18, tying the best two-year start by a coach in league history. The Bluejays went 12-1 at home, while their 28-game home winning streak in conference play came to an end as the second-longest such streak in MVC history. The amazing run in the WNIT was led by tournament MVP Christy Neneman. The senior closed her career averaging 15.6 points, 6.0 rebounds and 4.6 assists per tournament game. Dayna Finch and Laura Spanheimer joined Neneman on the all-tournament team. Finch led the team with 17.0 points per WNIT game, sinking 14 three-pointers in the five wins. Spanheimer averaged 14.4 points, 5.4 rebounds, and 2.4 steals per WNIT contest. The Bluejays made 44 three-point field goals and shot 89.9 percent (71-79) at the free throw line during its five-game championship run. Creighton opened the WNIT on the road with wins at Colorado State and Washington before returning home for the final three rounds of the tournament. The Bluejays rallied for a come-from-behind win over Oregon State in the quarterfinals, built a 72-51 lead over Richmond in their 81-72 semifinal victory and then cruised past UNLV in the championship game. Neneman and Spanheimer each earned First Team All-MVC recognition, while Finch was tabbed All-MVC Honorable Mention. Spanheimer was also named the MVC Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight season and earned All-Defensive team honors for the third time. Finch and Spanheimer repeated on the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team and Finch was tabbed the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

For the third consecutive season, the Bluejays set a school record for three-pointers made with 260 treys. They ranked third in the NCAA in three-pointers per game and ranked among the NCAA elite in fewest turnovers per game (11th) and steals per game (29th). Finch finished seventh in the NCAA in three-pointers per game and established MVC records with 294 career three-pointers on 766 career attempts. Spanheimer became just the second Bluejay player to record 100 steals in a season. Kristi Woodard set a school record and led the MVC by shooting 89.2 % (66-74) from the free throw line. The Bluejays were rewarded for their championship season with a reception on April 18 as Omaha Mayor Mike Fahey proclaimed the day "2004 Women's National Invitation Tournament Champion Creighton Women's Basketball Day." Nebraska State Senator John Synowiecki also recognized each player and coach for their achievement.

The Bluejays continued their postseason run, appearing in their third straight WNIT. Creighton jumped out to their best start since the 1993-94 season, opening the year 12-3, while their 6-0 conference start was their best since that same 1994 squad. Following a 4-3 start Creighton rattled off eight straight wins, before falling at Missouri State on Jan. 23. During the game Creighton lost starting forward Christy Erickson to injury for the rest of the season. The Bluejays were again powerful at home, going 12-3 at the Civic. After an 8-1 run through the first half of conference play, which included four wins by five-points or less, they limped to a 5-4 Valley finish and lost in the quarterfinals of the MVC tournament for the second straight season. The Bluejays' season ended at Iowa in the first round of the WNIT. Creighton played close games all season, setting a then school record by playing in four overtime games. The team set a school record with 130 blocked shots and a 75.3 free throw percentage. They ranked in the NCAA top-25 in free throw percentage(16th), fewest turnovers per game (20th), three-point field goals per game (21st) and points per game (22nd). Laura Spanheimer and Angie Janis both earned First Team All-MVC and First Team Academic All-MVC honors. Spanheimer was also named the MVC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and set the school and MVC career record with 369 steals, becoming the first player in league history to earn All-Defensive team honors four times. Janis led the team with 19.1 points per game, the fifth Bluejay player to average better than 19 points in a season.

Creighton opened the year with a 7-4 mark against a tough non-conference schedule – five of CU's non-conference foes advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2008, while two more joined the Jays in the WNIT. The Jays owned wins over eventual conference champions Kansas State and UALR in non-conference play. The Bluejays reclaimed their dominance at home, posting an 11-1 mark at the Omaha Civic Auditorium. Creighton opened the WNIT with a road trip to South Dakota State, where the Bluejays snapped the Jackrabbits' 12-game winning streak and 22-game home winning streak before falling in overtime at eventual champion Marquette in the second round of the WNIT. The Bluejays also snapped Illinois State's 14-game winning streak on Feb. 2, notching their first win over a top-25 opponent since 1999, and ended Evansville's 10-game win streak on Feb. 17. Creighton's win over Indiana State on Jan. 31 was Flanery's 100th career victory. The Bluejays led the MVC with 40.7 rebounds per game, while establishing school records with 892 defensive rebounds and 1,342 total rebounds on the year. Creighton also led the MVC with 222 three-pointers, as its 6.7 3FG/game ranked 27th in the NCAA. Ally Thrall was named First Team All-MVC after leading the MVC in minutes played and finishing with a career-high 125 assists. Sara Cain earned All-MVC Second Team honors, while Kelsey Woodard was named to the MVC All-Freshman Team and set a Valley record by earning league Newcomer of the Week honors six times during her rookie season.

Creighton logged its second straight 20-win campaign and fifth 20-win season in an eight-year span. After a 2-6 start, the Bluejays went 20-6 to close out the season, including an appearance in the MVC Tournament title game and their sixth postseason appearance in eight years. The Bluejays posted a 14-4 record in MVC play, good for a second-place finish. Creighton managed success despite playing without two injured starters, as Sam Schuett missed the entire season and Michelle Kaus missed all but three games. Creighton was the top defensive team in the MVC, allowing 56 points per game to rank 31st in the NCAA. Creighton's 13.5 turnovers per game ranked eighth in the nation and its MVC-best 6.6 three-pointers per game ranked 32nd in the NCAA. An 11-game winning streak from Jan. 8 – Feb. 14 was the longest such streak under Jim Flanery, the best by a Bluejay team since the 1991-92 season and the longest MVC streak in CU history. Megan Neuvirth was named MVC Defensive Player of the Year, leading the conference in steals and rebounds and topping the team in assists and blocked shots. Her 325 rebounds established a school record and tied for the eighth most in MVC history, while she was one of five players in the NCAA to rank in the top-50 in steals and rebounds per game. The Bluejays hosted the first women's game played at CHI Health Center Omaha (vs. Drake, Feb. 27) and logged 11 straight wins to close out their use of the Omaha Civic Auditorium.

21-11 Overall • 13-5 MVC (2nd)

Creighton enjoyed its first season in D.J. Sokol Arena and Ryan Athletic Center by posting a 12-3 home record, including wins in its final seven home games of the year. The Bluejays captured their third consecutive 20-win season, finished second in the MVC regular-season for the second straight season and appeared in the MVC Tournament title game for the second consecutive year and the third time in a four-year span. The Bluejays led the MVC and ranked 21st in the NCAA with 7.3 three-pointers per game, making better than 200 threes in a season for the sixth time in a nine-year span.

Creighton repeated as the top defensive team in the MVC, allowing only 58.9 points per game, while ranking 22nd in the nation with only 14.7 turnovers per game. Sam Schuett finished 18th in the NCAA by shooting 42.2 percent from three-point range. She also made 40 consecutive free throw attempts to establish a school record during the season. Schuett was joined by Megan Neuvirth to become the first Bluejay duo to be named First Team All-MVC in the same season since 2005. Neuvirth, who was named MVC All-Defensive Team for the third time, finished her career with school records for career games played (130) and rebounds (929) – ninth in MVC history. Neuvirth, Chevelle Herring and Kelsey Woodard became the first trio in school history to each surpass 1,000 career points in the same season.

18-13 Overall • 12-6 MVC (T-2nd)

Creighton appeared in the WNIT for the fourth consecutive season, joining Kansas and Florida Gulf Coast as the only teams to do so. Seven of Creighton's 11 regular-season non-conference opponents advanced to the postseason, while the Bluejays' strength of schedule before MVC play began was a league-best 39th. Creighton was 12-3 at home, including its second game ever played at CHI Health Center Omaha against Kansas on Dec. 22. The Bluejays finished the season with eight straight home wins, including a 71-44 thrashing of Illinois State on senior day. Creighton led the MVC with 14.4 assists per game in conference play. The Bluejays tied a school record with 12 blocked shots at Missouri State on Feb. 27. Jim Flanery became just the seventh head coach in MVC history to reach 100 league wins when the Bluejays beat Wichita State 50-48 (Jan. 29) in the first overtime game played inside D.J. Sokol Arena. Flanery ended the season tied for second in school history with 170 overall victories. Carli Tritz was named MVC Freshman of the Year and All-MVC Honorable Mention after leading the team in assists, steals and field goal percentage. Kelsey Woodard earned First Team All-MVC honors, closing her career ranked third in school history and sixth in Valley history with 261 career three-pointers. Sam Schuett was named Second Team All-MVC and Sarah Nelson earned a spot on the MVC All-Freshman Team.

20-14 Overall • 12-6 BIG EAST (T-3rd)

Creighton's first season as a member of the BIG EAST Conference saw the Bluejays reach the postseason for the seventh consecutive season, advancing to the second round of the WNIT. The Bluejays, however, fell in a road contest at South Dakota State, 62-51. Creighton posted impressive victories over Minnesota (63-52 on Nov. 16) as well as wins over each of their nine new conference foes in the BIG EAST. Creighton claimed its first BIG EAST meeting with DePaul thanks in large part to the individual effort of senior McKenzie Fujan, who scored 38 points. Fujan's effort was the sixth-highest point total in a single game. A little more than a month later, Fujan's sophomore teammate Marissa Janning equalled the feat with 38 points to lead Creighton past Georgetown (75-61 on Feb. 5). Janning went on to claim the BIG EAST Player of the Year as she led the conference with 19.9 ppg in league play.

Senior Sarah Nelson and Fujan also nabbed All-BIG EAST Second Team honors. Nelson closed her career with 1,472 points and 920 rebounds, becoming the just the third player in Bluejay history with at least 1,000 points and 900 rebounds. Janning topped the 1,000 point mark in Creighton's 77-51 win over Missouri in the opening round of the WNIT. With Janning, Nelson and senior Carli Tritz all over 1,000 points it was the first time since 2010 that the Bluejays could boast three players on the roster to reach that milestone.

17-14 Overall • 10-8 BIG EAST (T-5th)

Armed with five freshmen, Creighton battled through a tough non-conference schedule featuring games at No. 1 Connecticut, at No. 14 California as well as home contests against No. 12 Nebraska and Kansas. The Bluejays closed non-conference play with four straight victories, including an 84-81 win in overtime against the Jayhawks (Dec. 22). After splitting its first two games in BIG EAST action, Creighton stumbled to a 2-5 conference start. Head coach Jim Flanery rallied his team as the Bluejays posted six straight wins, highlighted by consecutive road victories at St. John's (75-50 on Feb. 6) and at Seton Hall (81-73 on Feb. 8). The Bluejays went on to earn the No. 5 seed in the BIG EAST Championship, but fell to No. 4 St. John's in a hotly contested quarterfinal game. The season continued 11 days later as Creighton qualified for its eighth consecutive postseason, reaching the WNIT for the second straight season. The Bluejays drew the South Dakota Coyotes, but the road conditions in the DakotaDome proved too much. Junior Marissa Janning led the Bluejays with 483 points (15.6 per game) during the season, earning her second consecutive selection to the All-BIG EAST First Team. Senior Alexis Akin-Otiko and freshman Sydney Lamberty both joined Janning in claiming postseason honors. Akin-Otiko was the BIG EAST's Most Improved Player and was selected to the All-BIG EAST Second Team. Lamberty, meanwhile, claimed six Freshman of the Week honors and was named to the BIG EAST All-Freshman Team.

17-18 Overall • 8-10 BIG EAST (T-5th)

The tandem of senior Marissa Janning and top-100 recruit Audrey Faber gave the Bluejays high hopes entering the 2015-16 season. The first two games of the season supported Creighton's hopes as the Bluejays easily handled Wichita State and Marist. Prior to a contest at Drake the injury bug bit Creighton as center Brianna Rollerson suffered a Jones fracture. After a stumble against the Bulldogs, Creighton downed East Carolina by 25 in the opening game of the Lone Star Showcase. Two games later, however, another injury struck as Janning suffered a broken left fibula. Playing without two players expected to see significant minutes per game, the Bluejays regrouped to finish non-conference play at 6-6. The opening of BIG EAST play dealt the Bluejays a new challenge, as Creighton dropped its first three contests. Facing a road contest at Villanova, the Bluejays regrouped behind MC McGrory as the Minnesota native exploded for 22 points to guide Creighton to its first win at the Pavilion. The Bluejays went on to take four straight to move over .500. The roller coaster ride of a season continued as Creighton dropped seven of the next 10 contests to fall to 7-10 in the BIG EAST and 13-16 overall.

Faced with missing the postseason for the first time since 2007, the Bluejays answered the challenge. Creighton's climb began with a 64-57 victory at St. John's on the Red Storm's senior night. Securing the No. 7 seed in the BIG EAST Tournament, the Bluejays defeated No. 10 Providence in the opening round, 70-53. The following night Creighton downed second-seeded Villanova for the third time, 57-48, behind another 20-point effort by McGrory. Playing their third game in three nights, the Bluejays became eligible for the postseason with a 77-56 win over No. 3 Seton Hall as Creighton advanced to the championship game against St. John's. The Red Storm ended Creighton's magical run, 50-37. Creighton drew a road contest with the eventual WNIT champion, South Dakota, in the opening round. Despite an impressive effort Creighton saw its season end for the second consecutive year in the DakotaDome, 74-68.

10-12 Overall • 6-7 BIG EAST (6th)

Although the gap between games was just 263 days, basketball felt the loss of the Covid-19 pandemic as hard as any sport, seeing the 2019-20 postseason washed away. The 2020-21 regular-season was severely impacted, as players were asked to wear masks on the bench and some chose to wear them while playing. Creighton dropped its first three contests, then watched as its BIG EAST opener at Xavier was cancelled as the Bluejays warmed up due to a positive test within the Musketeer program. Creighton picked up back-to-back victories over Butler and Nebraska in early December.

The winning momentum was halted as Creighton saw three members of the rotation sidelined by injuries in a Dec. 17th battle at No. 3 Connecticut. Following a win in rescheduled road game at Xavier on Jan. 3, the Bluejays went on nearly a month-long pause of their own. Finally able to find their rhythm in early February, Creighton's young core delivered an overtime road win at Seton Hall (Feb. 13) and upset No. 19 DePaul in Wintrust Arena on Feb. 20. The highlight of the season came in the BIG EAST Tournament with consecutive victories over Georgetown and Seton Hall. After bowing out to Marquette in the BIG EAST Semifinals, the Bluejays accepted a bid to play in the WNIT. Creighton bested Bowling Green in the opening round, then dropped a battle with Northern Iowa by just one point.

Creighton women's basketball will be playing its 17th season at D.J. Sokol Arena in 2025-26.

D.J. Sokol Arena in the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center opened to rave reviews during the 2009-10 season. It has provided a unique game atmosphere and powerful home court advantage while helping the Bluejays post a 156-51 (.754) record in the first 16 seasons.

The opening of D.J. Sokol Arena ended 18 seasons without playing a home game on campus. Creighton played at nine off-campus sites as well as two venues on-campus in their first 36 seasons (1973-74 to 2008-09).

Despite splitting time between 12 locations for almost four decades, the Bluejays still have impressive success at home. The Bluejays own a .734 home winning percentage all-time, going 468-170 in recorded history, including four undefeated home seasons (1984-85, 1985-86, 1986-87 and 1991-92) and home court winning streaks of 23, 29 and 44 games. The Bluejays are 229-77 (.748) at home under head coach Jim Flanery.

Before moving to D.J. Sokol Arena, the Bluejays ended their run at the Omaha Civic Auditorium with 11 straight victories, defeating UC Riverside, 64-51, on March 21, 2009, in the first round of the WNIT to conclude play at the Civic with a 213-88 (.708) record.

In the 1970s, the Bluejays played their home games at the Civic Auditorium and the Vinardi Athletic Center on campus. Creighton notched 92 home victories in the 1980s, primarily playing at the Civic and the Kiewit Fitness Center on campus, putting together a school-record streak of 44 consecutive wins from Feb. 4, 1984 to Feb. 24, 1987.

In 1992, the Bluejays hosted Long Beach State in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, defeating the 49ers before a crowd of 3,502 at the Civic. Creighton played before 4,439 fans – the largest crowd in their home history on March 31, 2003, when they hosted Auburn in the WNIT Semifinals. In the debut season of D.J. Sokol Arena, the Bluejays knocked off Stephen F. Austin in the first round of the WNIT to welcome postseason play to the new venue.

The Bluejays won 101 home games between 2000-09, including one of the nation's longest home court winning streaks of 23 games from 2001 through 2003.

The Bluejays logged back-to-back 9-0 home records (2001-02 & 2002-03) in Missouri Valley Conference (MVC) play, helping them post 28 consecutive home conference wins from 2001 through 2004, the second-longest such streak in MVC history. The Bluejays repeated the undefeated conference mark (9-0) in 2012-13, Creighton's final year as a member of the MVC.

In the 2016-17 season, Creighton went 12-1 at D.J. Sokol Arena, including 8-1 in BIG EAST play.

During the 2024-25 campaign, the Bluejays went 11-0 at D.J. Sokol Arena, while the lone home loss came at the CHI Health Center Omaha. Creighton enters the 2025-26 season with a win streak at D.J. Sokol Arena of 18 games, dating back to a Jan. 3, 2024 loss to Connecticut.

D.J. Sokol Arena

More than 182,000 bricks, 654 tons of steel and 30 miles of electrical wire were used during construction of D.J. Sokol Arena. The height of the roof ridge is 78'-10" above the arena floor, with a unique ceiling fan measuring 20 feet in diameter spinning high above the playing surface.

Creighton opened D.J. Sokol Arena with a 77-54 win over Arkansas State on Nov. 13, 2009. The Bluejays have posted a 156-51 (.754) record in the first 16 seasons inside their home.

History of Billy Bluejay

Billy Bluejay is the official mascot of the Creighton University Athletics Department. Creighton is a private, Jesuit NCAA Division I school in Omaha, Neb., founded in 1878.

Prior to 1924, with no official athletics nickname, University publications and news media often referred to Creighton athletic teams by the school's colors – the "White and Blue," or vice versa. Because of Creighton's location atop a bluff, the team was occasionally designated unofficially as the "Hilltoppers," but the name lost favor because at least six other teams in the country went by the same nickname. At the behest of Creighton's Athletics Board and Alumni Association, the Omaha Bee newspaper coordinated a public contest in late 1923 to select a nickname and mascot for Creighton University athletic teams. After reviewing 200 entries, the Athletics Board decided upon "Bluejays" because the color of the bird was in keeping with school colors.

The Bluejays were originally depicted by an ornithologically correct rendition of the bird. In 1941, Creighton alumnus Joseph P. Murphy, a 1931 graduate of the College of Business and, at the time, a Creighton journalism professor and the head of its public relations department, designed a graphical image of the bird with a more human stance and expression.

Murphy's 1941 design remained largely intact for the past 72 years with only minor revisions. While it is unclear on the exact year the first walking costume mascot modeled after Murphy's 1941 graphical image appeared publicly or the first time the image or mascot were referred to as "Billy Bluejay," many costumes were created, changed/re-designed over the past seven decades as Billy became a fixture at Creighton Athletics events, roaming the sidelines to cheer on his beloved Bluejays.

In October, 2013, in conjunction with Creighton's move to the BIG EAST Conference, the University unveiled a new Athletics brand – athletic logo, sport-specific logos and corresponding secondary marks designed to increase overall awareness of the Creighton University Bluejays - locally, regionally and nationally. The new logo was designed to build on the history, tradition and love of previous Billy Bluejay icons while maintaining the integrity of the past and establishing the new Creighton Bluejay brand as a distinct and recognizable identity in the BIG EAST.

Creighton Athletics turned to Street Characters to provide an updated Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume, one that was more vibrant, more athletic and one that more closely resembled the new athletics brand. The new-look Billy Bluejay walking mascot costume made his first public appearance in front of over 17,000 fans when the Creighton men's basketball team hosted Nebraska on Dec. 8 at CHI Health Center Omaha.

McCormick Endowed Athletic Director Marcus Blossom

Marcus Blossom starts his fifth year as McCormick Endowed Athletic Director at Creighton in 2025-26.

Creighton has enjoyed historic levels of success in Blossom's first four years on the job, as Bluejay teams have made 18 postseason appearances, won six conference tournament titles, five regular-season titles and had 78 First Team All-Conference selections to go with eight Conference Coach of the Year accolades. The Bluejays have had 11 College Sports Communicators Academic All-Americans during Blossom's tenure.

Among Creighton's most prominent student-athletes in his reign have been 2022 MAC Hermann Trophy Award winner and 2024 Olympian Duncan McGuire, NBA Draft picks Ryan Kalkbrenner and Baylor Scheierman, USA Basketball 3x3 MVP Morgan Maly and First Team All-American Kendra Wait.

Creighton is the nation's only school to reach the Elite Eight in men's soccer, volleyball, men's basketball, women's basketball in the last four years. Creighton and UCLA are also the nation's only schools to reach the Sweet 16 at least once in men's soccer, women's volleyball, men's basketball and women's basketball in the past four years.

The work performed by Bluejay student-athletes in the classroom also featured excellence across the board. The men's track program owned the nation's best GPA in 2023-24 & 2024-25. Five of Creighton's programs were recognized by the BIG EAST with Team Academic Excellence Awards in 2024-25. CU student-athletes owned a 3.51 GPA in the spring of 2025.

As athletic director at Holy Cross, Blossom led the development of the athletics department's first strategic plan, with a focus on creating a high-performance culture, achieving and sustaining competitive excellence, and increasing ticket sales, external support and community engagement, while also enhancing facilities.

Under his leadership, academic success within the Holy Cross athletics program was among the very best in the nation, ranking first for graduation success rate, with the school receiving more than a dozen Division I Academic Progress Rate public recognition awards from the NCAA. Several teams at Holy Cross posted multi-year APR scores in the top 10% of all squads in their respective sports.

Prior to his time at Holy Cross, Blossom spent five years at Boston College as senior associate athletics director for business and administration.

Blossom has a deep background with Jesuit higher education, and he is no stranger to the BIG EAST, having spent two years with Providence College as associate athletic director for business operations. Earlier in his career, he also served as assistant director of championships for the NCAA, managing the complex process of championship host-city selection, among other duties.

Blossom, who is from Chicago and has strong Midwestern ties, earned his Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration with a concentration in finance at Northeastern University, a Master's Degree in Sport Management from West Virginia University and an MBA from the University of Rhode Island. While earning his undergraduate degree at Northeastern University, Blossom was a three-time GTE/CoSIDA Academic All-District and three-time all-conference selection in men's basketball.

Blossom and his wife, Karli, have two daughters, Maya and Mora.

President Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, S.J., Ph.D.

The Rev. Daniel S. Hendrickson, SJ, PhD, is the 25th president of Creighton University and currently in his 11th year leading the nearly 150-year-old Jesuit, Catholic institution with campuses in Omaha, Phoenix, and the Dominican Republic.

Fr. Hendrickson first encountered Creighton as a student in the Jesuit Humanities Program in 1996 before returning to teach at the University from 2000 to 2003. He was elected to the Creighton Board of Trustees in 2013, elected president of Creighton in December 2014, and began his tenure July 1, 2015, guided by a deep passion for the University's mission to form leaders who are motivated to build a more just world.

Prior to serving as Creighton University president, he held positions at Jordan University College in Morogoro, Tanzania; Fordham University in New York; and Marquette University.

During his presidency, the University has experienced record-breaking enrollments and an expansion of academic program offerings as well as undergraduate research opportunities. Additionally, an increase in student support efforts has helped Creighton achieve a 98% outcomes rate for graduates and a 94% first-to-second year retention rate.

Fr. Hendrickson has also overseen significant expansion and enhancements to the University's physical footprint. This includes more than half a billion dollars in investments to the urban core of Omaha through infrastructural improvements as well as building a new campus in Phoenix in 2021 for interprofessional health sciences education, including a second four-year medical school, with the ability to serve approximately 1,000 students.

Moreover, with Fr. Hendrickson's leadership, Creighton strengthened its philanthropic support. As of 2025, the University has seen a 38% increase in endowed chairs during his tenure with 14 positions being created since 2015 and 13 of those being funded during the ambitious Forward Blue campaign, which launched publicly in 2021. With student support as a priority, the campaign has raised more than $246 million in scholarship dollars, with more than 488 new scholarships established. During this time, Creighton's total investments, which reflect a nearly 75% increase in the endowment pool as well as other contributions, have topped $1 billion.

Outside of Creighton, Fr. Hendrickson serves on the boards of Boston College, Xavier University, and the BIG EAST Conference Board of Directors. He is also a trustee of ILAC/Centro de Educación para la Salud Integral in the Dominican Republic and Jesuit Worldwide Learning.

Fr. Hendrickson holds a BA from Marquette University; an MA in philosophical resources from Fordham University; a MDiv degree from Santa Clara University; and MA and PhD degrees from Columbia University. He is the author of "Jesuit Higher Education in a Secular Age: A Response to Charles Taylor and the Crisis of Fullness," published in 2022.

Athletic Performance

Creighton University student-athletes benefit from year-round strength and conditioning training programs in the McDermott Center.

The 6,000 square foot state-of-the-art Athletic Performance Center is equipped with 12 Power Lift half-racks that each have inlaid lifting platforms and the EliteForm system. Additionally, the Athletic Performance Center features Uesaka Collegiate Series Bumper Plates, Plae Flooring, Iron Grip dumbbells, and a nutrition and hydration station to provide Creighton student-athletes with the optimal training and recovery environment.

The athletic performance program at Creighton University is designed to increase performance and overall athlete health and availability. The program is developed utilizing an extensive screening and assessment process to individualize each athlete's training program and address their specific needs.

To help maximize athletic performance, each Creighton student-athlete works with the strength and conditioning staff, the sports medicine staff, a certified nutritionist and a sports psychologist, giving Creighton student-athletes all the resources they need to succeed at the highest level.

Head Strength and Conditioning coach Brad Schmidt works with the women's basketball program.

Athletic Training

The Creighton University Athletic Training staff works in cooperation with and under the supervision of team physicians to provide the best possible care for student-athletes. It has a staff of six full-time athletic trainers, and two part-time athletic trainers. Athletic training students also gain clinical experience as they help serve the athletic medicine needs of Creighton student-athletes.

The mission of Creighton University athletic training is to serve as the initial allied healthcare provider for Creighton student-athletes and to provide access to other healthcare professionals as needed. Services include the prevention, assessment, management and rehabilitation of athletic-related injuries and illnesses.

Creighton athletic training is committed to the highest standards of care consistent with the National Athletic Trainers Association Code of Professional Practice and the credentialing statutes of the state of Nebraska.

Assistant Athletic Trainer Nick Bies works with the women's basketball program.

Creighton's McDermott Center Features Academic Resource Center

In the summer of 2014, Creighton opened the McDermott Center, a facility that has benefited student-athletes for the last decade. Located adjacent to D.J. Sokol Arena and the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Center, the McDermott Center is highlighted by the Wayne and Eileen Ryan Athletic Training Center, the Parker Family Academic Resource Center, the Doug McDermott Player Lounge and the Kyle Korver Courts inside D.J. Sokol Gymnasium, among many other features.

The Parker Family Academic Resource Center features private meeting and study rooms with access to tutors, a computer lab, wireless internet, couches, tables, chairs and many more resources to help Bluejay student-athletes make the most of their time.

Academic and Athletic Success

- Creighton's student-athletes combined for a 3.51 GPA last spring, its best spring semester on record. The student-athletes also own a 3.50 cumulative GPA.
- Fifty-three Creighton student-athletes have earned a combined 67 College Sports Communicators Academic All-American honors all-time. Volleyball's Kendra Wait and Norah Sis, as well as Men's Basketball's Steven Ashworth and Women's Basketball's Morgan Maly, were each honored during the 2024-25 school year.
- Kendra Wait became CU's first student-athlete in any sport to be named a First Team Academic All-American as well as a First Team All-American on the court in the same academic year.
- Creighton had 216 student-athletes make the Dean's List at least one time last year, including 151 student-athletes who earned the honor both semesters.
- Every program had a team GPA of 3.25 or better last spring and nine squads (men's basketball, women's basketball, women's golf, women's tennis, men's cross country/track, women's cross country/track, women's soccer, rowing) had GPA's of 3.50 or better last spring.
- Nine Creighton teams were recognized with national academic honors for the classroom acumen during the 2024-25 academic year.
- Ten of the 11 members of the Creighton Women's Basketball program earned a 3.5 GPA or better at least once in 2024-25, with eight women doing it both semesters.
- Fifty-four student-athletes (19 percent) earned perfect 4.0 GPAs during the spring 2025 semester, including Sydney Golladay, Allison Heathcock, Lauren Jensen, Brooke Littrell and Molly Mogensen from the women's basketball team.
